Newspapers by Ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/457374465

Downloaded on Jan 29, 2020

THE NEWS.

The Penitentiary at Frankfort, Ky., on Fire.

An Attempt to Plunder a Train Near Pittsburg.

Fatal Snowslides Occur in Colorado.

The Coal Famine Making the New Yorkers Uneasy.

The French Celebrate the Surrender of Cornwallis.

A Suit Against Timber Depredators in Oregon.

Acquittal of Mrs. Moore, Who Killed a Former Husband.

Opposition to the Marriage of the Condemned Anarchist.

Michael Davitt's Hearty Reception in Philadelphia.

Secretary Lamar's Return—Legislative Matters in Indiana—Gold and Silver Found in Virginia—Destructive Fires.

(SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.)

LABOR TROUBLES.

Condition of the New Jersey Coal-handlers' Strike.

NEW YORK, January 15.—The coal-handlers' strike in Jersey City and Hoboken appears to be at an end within the next forty-eight hours, and work will be resumed Monday morning. The United States Court for the District of New Jersey responded to the application of the Receivers of the Central Railroad of New Jersey for its property, and under this response the hands lying of coal will be removed along that line as fast as men can be put on in place of the striker.

THE SICKNESS AT ROSELAND'S PATCHES.

PITTSBURG, January 15.—The Roseland sickness continues to spread, and it is feared it will appear in other parts of the country to prevent the sale of the Roseland patches. Dealers refuse to remain and until their demands are accepted.

THE STRIKE REVIVED AT NEWPORT NEWS.

NEWPORT NEWS, (Va.) January 15.—The strike at Newport News was settled yesterday by the men accepting the terms of the company.

NEW YORK ANNOUNCEMENT.

NEW YORK, January 15.—President John Murphy, of the Knights of Labor District Assembly 49, and Delaney Quinn, acting upon the directions of the Executive Committee this yesterday afternoon issued the following statement of the Knights of Labor strike. The conference was adjourn, as the Directors refused to make any concessions. The men will go back to work Monday unless at the old rates. The men are ready any further overtures for settlement made coming from the company.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK.

A Coal Famine Growing Daily More Imminent.

NEW YORK, January 15.—There is still no material change in the situation in the coal strike. The factory men are reporting that no operatives have left their work, and that their employers claim they can work for half a week. It is said the supply of soft coal, which is used in the factories, is not so large as anthracite, as far as possible, will also cease to be exhausted.

THE INDIANA LEGISLATURE.

Proceedings in the Case Brought Against Lieutenant-Governor Robertson.

INDIANAPOLIS, January 15.—In the Circuit Court this morning, in the proceedings in quo warranto in injunction proceedings of Senator Smith against Lieutenant-Governor Robertson, Judge Taylor's argument occupied near two and a half hours.

At the conclusion Judge Ayres said he would withhold his decision until Monday morning.

There was a well-filled courtroom, many prominent lawyers being present. Ex-Senator Hendricks, Ex-Senator Stockwell was an attentive listener to the arguments in Judge Taylor's. Ex-Senator Stockwell, in his argument, was emphatically only provided by counsel of Governor Robertson, and Senator Smith's counsel argued that in case of death the office were vacant, the President of the Senate, Mr. Hunt, would become the acting Governor.

The Judge's decision will be followed by an injunction issued by the Supreme Court, and a Hot voting may be given on Tuesday. But this is not certain.

Senator Smith's friends are sure that Judge Ayres will decide against Robertson, and there will short Judge Taylor as Senator Smith's counsel argued that Senator Smith and Democrat that the Democrats will assist more than one Republican, and it is probable that Senator Smith will be seated. Senator Bender, who formerly was a Democrat, but now is charged with presenting votes.

THE ANARCHIST'S BRIDE.

Notes of the Marriage of Louisa Lingg and Relatives of the Young Lady.

PITTSBURG, January 15.—Miss Nina Clarke Van Zandt of Chicago, who is soon to be married to August Spies, the condemned Anarchist, is a young lady of considerable prominence and formerly visited here. She is the granddaughter of W. S. Clarke, who was one of the most prominent merchants in Pittsburg and lived on a large farm in Allegheny City. Her father married the married John Arthur, who was a well-known and popular young man in Pittsburg, and who died before his wife, who lived in Chicago, and her father, W. S. Clarke, died in Chicago. Miss Van Zandt is well educated, and was very much admired because of her beauty and accomplishments. Mr. Van Zandt, her father, is a well-to-do man, and married with his wife's mother, Mrs. Van Zandt, who is living, is said, a sister of the late Senator Thurman, of Ohio, and a cousin of Mrs. Hendricks.

It is reported that the marriage with Spies was fixed, the expected Pittsburg relatives of Miss Van Zandt will be present.

A HITCH IN THE MATTER.

The Clerk Refuses a License for the Solemnization of the Marriage.

CHICAGO, January 15.—Miss Lingg has now did not smooth, and brought the gentle anarchist August Spies was in a tossing page in hysterics in the Criminal Court.

Yesterday afternoon, before Judge Shaw, Mr. Will bring the Prussian my designs to bring, "Miss Lingg, do you take August Spies to be your husband?" Miss Lingg, in a Prussian, yes, to Eugene Sanger, Marriage Clerk, who was in the courtroom.

"Do you take August Spies to be your husband?" said Mr. Sanger