

The bark of society, with "hope in the bows and pleasure at the helm," is riding with a pleasantly even keel. The problem of the fit employment of the hours not de-voted to work is far from easy or unimportant, and must more and more be solved by the delights of social intercourse. Dances, music, country expeditions, artistic interests of varied kind serve the purpose of this intercommunication of the species. which is so necessary for its progress. A resume of the bright doings of the past week and notice of what may be expected in the near future will be found below. Much interest is being demonstrated in the grand concert to be given in the Grand Opera-house to-morrow evening in aid of St. Mary's Hospital. It is expected this will be one of the finest entertainments ever given here, and the names of the patronesses, already published in these columns, guarantee an overflowing attendance of the elite of society.

The lady directors of the Woman's Exchange very wisely postponed their fete champetre to next Saturday afternoon. Sodden turf is uncomfortable, and anticipation will be only quickened by the delay. Under the auspices of Colonel and Mrs. Shafter the fete at Angel Island next Saturday should be a most brilliant one.

The officers and ladies of the Presidio gave one of their delightful hops last Friday evening in their pretty hop-room.

The Owls' Nest Club, with headquarters in San Mateo County, and the corner-stone ceremonies on the new building will take place next Saturday afternoon. Hon. George T. Bromley will officiate as Archon, and Mr. N. Brittan is in charge of the arrangements as a whole.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the dance given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams on last Thursday evening, at their residence, 1925 Octavia street. The entire first floor was thrown open for the accommodation of guests, who, amid pretty descripted danced and support decorations, danced and supped sumptu-onsly and danced again. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rau of Portland, Or., gave a delightful entertainment on Thursday evening of last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Rothschild and Miss Slessinger, who are visiting in that city. Mr. Rothschild sang "Oh, Promise Me," and Miss Caroline Milzner Hamilton of the Bos-tonians rendered a number of solos.

Mrs. M. A. Rothschild wore a magnifi-cent dress of white satin with overdress of eecy white lace combined with pink silk. The corsage was decollete and beautifully trimmed with delicate pink embroidery, while on either shoulder were knots of pink velvet. Miss Slessinger appeared in a very pretty toilet of pale blue crepe, the corsage pro-fusely embeltished with purple violets.

The McNear-Stearns Wedding.

A quiet and very pleasant wedding took place last Wednesday atternoon, the contracting parties being Mr. M. Edwin Mc-Near and Miss M. Louise Stearns. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents on Scott street, Rev. J. S. Carroll officiating. The parlors were prettily decorated with flowers and stringers, and a large wedding bell hung in the bowand a large wedding bell hung in the bow-window, under which the couple knelt. The wedding of Mr. M. F. Donleavy of this city and Miss Minnie Crowley of Oakland took place on Sunday evening at the residence of a mutual friend, 1136 Howard

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. O. Crowley of the Youths' Directory, who is an uncle of the bride. Mr. P. J. Meehan was the briderroom, and Miss Katie Crowley, the bride's sister, acted as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the large number of friends of the couple were enter-tained in a most hospitable manner. While the wedding dinner was being dis-cussed music was discoursed by a brilliant set of juveniles, known as the Kaufman amateur band, the eldest of whom was not over 13 years of age and the youngest only 7. It was composed of Miss Maud Kauf-man and Masters Freddie and George Kaufman, together with Miss Katle and Willie Dewey. Toasts and speech-making were in-dulged in at the festive board, and later on danging and dancing and games were the order of the evening.

The entertainment was kept up until a late hour, owing to the presence of so many friends of the groom, who is so well known as a business man as well as a Democratic politician. After their bridal tour among the citrus fruits of the south they will take up their permanent residence in this city.
