

Guglielmi Shines Both Ways For Notre Dame; Now Doing Things First Expected Of Him

By Murray Olderman
New York (NEA)—Almost every pre-season prospect dealing with the Fighting Irish of Notre Dame put a question mark around the vital split-T quarterback spot. At best they were lukewarm over the merits of incumbent Ralph Guglielmi, a junior with two years varsity experience who still hadn't been able to sell himself as a top-fighter.

The trouble is they didn't bother to consult Guglielmi (pronounced "Goo-vell-me"), a refreshingly brash 19-year-old from Columbus, O., with consummate belief in his own and his team's ability.

In the season opener against Oklahoma, Googs, as the boys call him, demonstrated sound foundations for that belief, with a marvelous display of all-around versatility, running, passing, directing his squad and playing defensive half-back.

"The first time we met the cocky youngster was after the 1952 opener against Pennsylvania, and the Irish had been rocked with a surprising 7-7 tie.

"I over-rated them," was his post-game reaction. "We should have had five touchdowns."

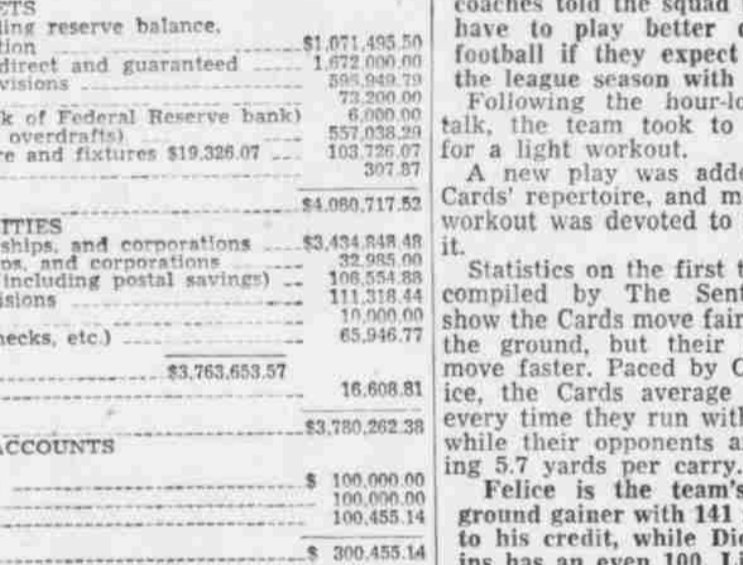

This was still in the platoon era, and Ralph was having a tough time maintaining a playing edge over Teammate Tom Carey. Quarterbacks were valuable bric-a-brac consigned only to directing the team.

"I like to play defense," Ralph complained, "Leahy won't let me." This year he got his wish and has shown a knack for coming up with the big tackle or the key interception. He's a sturdy enough 180-pounder, but his one drawback is lack of speed. This he compensates with quick-thinking decisiveness. It's vital in a split-T quarterback who drifts behind the line and must make up his mind when he reaches the tackles whether he's going to pitch out or keep the ball and slant in.

He's now doing the things they first expected of him when he came to Notre Dame as a freshman in 1951 and by late season had become a varsity regular and star of the Southern California game.

As a high schooler, he was all-Ohio and won 10 letters in football, basketball and baseball. So how did he escape the net sent out by home town Ohio State? "It beats me," he answered flippantly.

It also beats a lot of the teams that have to play Notre Dame.

RALPH HAS A HEALTHY EGO AND POISE... WORDS, WORDS, WORDS. BUT BACKS THEM UP WITH PASSING PROFICIENCY! WHO NEEDS TO LOOK? MURRAY OLDERMAN

Shoemaker Rides Only One Winner

Albany, Calif. (P)—Willie Shoemaker followed up Saturday's sensational 6-winner streak with only one victory at Golden Gate Fields yesterday.

But with 396 wins he's within 5 of breaking the record 390 in one year set in 1952 by Tony DeSpirito.

Statistics

Baer Explains What To Expect From Monterey

Just what to expect from the Monterey Toradors Friday night when the CCAL season opens at Memorial field was explained fully to the Santa Cruz Cardinals yesterday afternoon by Coach Roger Baer and his staff.

Cardlets, HC To Scrimmage Tonight

Holy Cross will extend a helping hand to its cross-town neighbors at Santa Cruz high school this afternoon when they scrimmage the lightweight Cardlets.

Baseball Has Big Stake In Legal Contest

Washington (AP)—Organized baseball goes before the supreme court today in what is perhaps the most significant legal contest in the history of the national sport.

Tittle Is Out Until Nov. 1

Detroit (AP)—A shattered cheekbone is expected to idle the San Francisco 49er's ace quarterback Y. A. Tittle until November 1.

Irish Still Top AP Poll

New York (AP)—Notre Dame remained at the top of the collegiate football world today — the third straight week the Irish have ruled the roost.

The weekly Associated Press poll of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters gave the South Bend squad 1225 points despite the fact that it was idle last Saturday.

Notre Dame collected 74 first place points compared to 57 for all other teams combined. The points were tabulated by the usual method of 10 for first, nine for second and so on.

Michigan State, which had to come from behind to lick Texas Christian, stayed in second place, but gathered only 14 first-place votes, as compared to 15 last week and 877 points compared to 1022 in the second poll.

The biggest change was disappearance of Ohio State from the top 10. The Buckeyes, shattered by underdog Illinois 41-20 last Saturday, plummeted to a tie for 18th with Mississippi Southern, the little school that beat Alabama at the start of the season. Illinois rose to No. 9 in the rankings.

Maryland, which many observers think is the top team in the south, rated third, only 16 points behind Michigan State. The Terps were a distant fourth last week.

UCLA was fourth and Michigan fifth. The rest of the first 10 was rounded out, in order, by Georgia Tech, Duke, Baylor, Illinois and West Virginia.

The top 10 first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Notre Dame (74) 1225
2. Michigan State (14) 977
3. Maryland (21) 961
4. UCLA (8) 755
5. Michigan 537
6. Georgia Tech 490
7. Duke (3) 485
8. Baylor 397
9. Illinois 284
10. West Virginia (9) 181

Bench WARMER

By Arnold Wechter

There's a silver lining in every cloud so the old saying goes — and it holds true for the coming Coast Counties Athletic league football season.

Normally considered one of the toughest prep circuits in northern California, the CCAL has been taking its lumps from outside competition during the past three weeks. In fact, the four-team league has compiled a record of two wins, eight defeats and one tie.

This is conclusive that the league is not up to snuff, but it could mean the fans will see a real dogfight for the championship. Any team, and we're including Santa Cruz in this statement, has a good chance to go all the way. One thing we're willing to bet — and that is no team will go through the league season undefeated.

Watsonville still looks like the team to beat, but Coach Emmett Geiser does not have one of the powerhouses that have characterized the Wildcat squads during the past four seasons. Monterey, Salinas and SANTA CRUZ all have a better chance than they have had in previous years.

The Cardinals and Salinas have been disappointments so far, but key injuries have slowed both squads. When they return to full strength they could prove to be surprisingly tough.

We don't think the CCAL will remain in its present anemic condition. Like all leagues the CCAL is going through a cycle, and we believe within the next two seasons CCAL teams will again be counted among the toughest in the north coast section.

The City Basketball association made a wise move when it decided to do away with its regular league, and concentrate its efforts on one team.

During the past few years the league has become somewhat of a farce from an attendance standpoint. There were too many basketball games being played in Santa Cruz, and as a result none of them drew well.

With the advent of television, the league would have suffered further so the directors thought a merciful rather than a lingering death was necessary.

The one team composed of the top players in the area should give fans a chance to see a better grade of basketball, and at a reasonable price.

Better Than Giel And Ameche

Southern California Experts Still Think Cameron Is The Best

Los Angeles (AP)—Los Angeles football fans have seen two of the nation's finest out-of-state backs in action this fall in Paul Giel of Minnesota and Alan Ameche of Wisconsin.

But with all due respect to the brilliance of both players, critics here are still satisfied with their own All-America candidate, half-back Paul Cameron of UCLA.

Powerful Paul, who stands 6 feet and weighs 185 pounds, can not only do one thing well, he does a lot of things well.

The Burbank Bomb, playing on a well balanced, unbeaten squad, leads his teammates in six of seven departments of play. He isn't exactly eligible for the seventh.

Cameron leads the Bruins in rushing, passing, punting, pass interception, and kickoff and punt returns.

He isn't leading in pass reception because the rules forbid a player passing to himself.

In succession, Oregon State, Kansas, Oregon and Indiana have experienced unhappy contact with UCLA and Cameron.

The odd part is that Cameron actually hasn't reached his peak, particularly in passing.

Still, the big fellow has scored four touchdowns and passed for three more, directly accounting for 42 of the Bruins' 85 points. And Cameron has been closely if not directly responsible for a big portion of the remaining points.

Just as last year, when an ankle and shoulder injury kept him sidelined much of the time, Cameron's mere presence at strategic moments has paid off.

The single platoon apparently poses no problem for Cameron. He has looked impressive on defense. He is a hard tackler and obviously a dangerous runner. UCLA has intercepted 11 passes. Only Cameron has intercepted two.

In 68 trips with the ball Cameron has gained 328 yards for an average of almost five yards. He has completed 12 out of 36 passes for 146 yards and three touchdowns, and in 14 punts he is averaging 40.21 yards.

He has returned 9 punts 137 yards, averaging 15.22 an return. Three kickoffs 47 yards for a 15.66 average. He returned the two pass interceptions 22 yards.

And just as an added attraction Cameron not only is a triple threat and safety specialist, he also calls the signals.

No wonder Coach Red Sanders calls him the greatest single wing tailback he has ever coached.

Here's Coaches' Viewpoint

By Russ Newland
San Francisco (AP)—Experts at Monday's meeting of the Northern California Football Writers association came up with these pertinent observations:

Chuck Taylor, Stanford: "As far as UCLA, Stanford's opponent at Palo Alto Saturday is concerned, our staff belongs on the same field. Our count reports say UCLA is a better team than last year when it finished second in the conference. Its reverses are going better."

"Of course the way the season has been going, anything can happen. The 21-7 win over Oregon State cannot be evaluated as such. Oregon State does not have a good team this year."

Vic Kelley, publicity man for UCLA: "Coach Henry Sanders says he can find no reason to re-evaluate his pre-season appraisal that Stanford is the conference dark horse with the potential to knock over any team. Sanders thinks Stanford has the best line on the coast.

"We think Paul Cameron is the best tailback in the country. In the switch to single platoons, he has proved himself as a good defensive player to add to his great ability on offense."

"Our present backfield gives us the best running attack since Sanders took over in 1949."

Coach Lynn Waldorf, California: "I look for a tough game with San Jose State this weekend. In fact, I don't see the Bruins winning any game (score 40-0). I thought Penn would be strong. All the breaks came our way. We used every player on the bench. 35, and our third team played all of the last quarter."

"Of the younger backs, Jerry Drew, an 18-year-old sophomore from Los Angeles, looked good. Our first string backfield is not as fast or big as last year's. This team is the most unpredictable I have coached here. Paul Larson is the reason. Nobody knows where or when he is going to throw the ball or run with it."

Coach Bob Bronzan, San Jose State: "I feel if we play our best game and California is looking beyond us for the USC game October 24, we might surprise them. San Jose will be at its strongest physical peak since the opener with Idaho."

San Jose won that one, 34-6.

John Rhode, assistant coach, College of the Pacific: "In our game with Texas Tech at Lubbock Saturday we will be outwished in the line and will be up against faster backs. I scouted Texas Tech against Texas A. & M. last week and can report that Tech could have won the game with a few breaks."

"Our problem is to try to get the players up to a peak close to that in the game with Stanford. COP upset Stanford 25-20, September 19. If we can get the boys up, we will give Tech competition."

A'S GET HURLER
Philadelphia Athletics have recalled Pitcher Ed Bertschy 12-9 from Ottawa of the International League.

Moore Must Defend Title

Washington (AP)—Archie Moore, the aging St. Louis veteran, was under instructions from the National Boxing Association today to defend his light-heavyweight championship within the next few months or lose it.

In its fall ratings issued last night, the NBA pointedly contended it was responsible for Moore's chance to win the championship in the first place. It said he should feel obligated to risk his title in a bout with Harold Johnson of Philadelphia, logical contender in that division.

Fred J. Saddy, chairman of the NBA ratings board, noted that only persistent NBA nudging prompted Joey Maxim of Cleveland to take on Moore in a title bout, which Moore won handily.

In its ratings, the NBA touted after one other boxer, Percy Bassett of Philadelphia, the interim featherweight champion, and told him to put his title on the line or face NBA action stripping him of it.

Bassett holds only an interim title because of featherweight champion Sandy Saddler is in the army. But even so, Bassett is rated no higher than fourth in his own division behind Sadler, Willie Pep and Redtop Davis.

Rocky Marciano, the heavyweight champion, and Jimmy Carter, the lightweight title holder, were given strong votes of confidence by the ratings board, which could see no logical contender in either division.

Dan Bucceroni of Philadelphia was given second place among the heavyweights in a four-man field rated as outstanding boxers. Bucceroni, a Johnny-come-lately among the top-level fighters, risks that position in a go against Jim Slade of New York tomorrow night.

Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati, the former heavyweight champion, edged up into third place ahead of Roland LaStarza of New York, who was rated a logical contender before Marciano took care of him with an 11th round technical knockout last month.

Given the fifth spot was Nino Valdez of Cuba.

Bowling

WEDNESDAY HANDICAP (Capitola Bowl)

Results: Capitola Garage (0) Mary Ide 137, 432; Opal Cliffs Food Center (4) Lindy Jones 202, Alma Niselich 537; Benias Restaurant (0) Lorraine Kirk 157, 409; Apos Merchants (4) Ruth Smith 185, Christine Diener 501. The Hanby's (4) Bruce Cunningham 202, 497; Opal Cliffs Merchants (0) Glenna Robinson 135, 412, Johnson & Andersen (3) Barbara Ziehlke 187, 497; Soquel Pharmacy (1) Doris Rampone 154, 404.

Standings

Opal Cliffs Food Center	12	0
Apos Merchants	10	2
The Hanby's	8	4
Johnson & Andersen	7	5
Soquel Pharmacy	5	7
Opal Cliffs Merchants	3	9
Capitola Garage	2	10
Benias Restaurant	1	11

SANTA CRUZ MERCHANTS LEAGUE

Shockey's Jewelers (3) Bud Jones 185, 547; Richfield Products (1) Ray Kalar 186, 497; San Lorenzo Lumber (4) Ernie Craft 186, 205, 215, 606; Walti-Schilling (0) John Lathrop 212, 522; Santa Cruz Lumber (1) Charles Knopke 212, 552; Readers Nursery (3) Tom He stand 197, 539; Richison Pharmacy (4) Harry Pierson 232, 543; Herb Coats (0) Bob Baldassar 202, 511.

San Lorenzo Lumber	15	5
Santa Cruz Lumber	14	6
Mission Pharmacy	10	10
Walt-Schilling	9	11
Richfield Products	9	11
Shockey Jewelers	8	12
Readers Nursery	8	12
Herb Coats	7	13

The Giant Sentinel-News Football Contest goes into its fourth week today with an entire slate of new games to be selected.

Turn to pages 6 and 7, study the 29 games carefully and then select your choices. You may enter the contest as many times as you wish—and remember there are no gimmicks.

So if you have not entered any of the three previous contests now is the time to get started.

Football Contest In 4th Big Week

SHAVAR SHOP FREE DEMONSTRATION

Remington - Schick - Shavermor Trade-in allowance on old shavers 309 WATER ST. PHONE 6622-W

Air Force

3 DAY SPECIAL Reserve

Santa Cruz 9373rd VAR FLIGHT

meets Wednesday NIGHT at 8 o'clock

ROY ALDERSON

USED CAR LOT 345 Soquel Ave. Phone 4130

MAKE WITH MISSION

MISSION MILK

HOMOGENIZED MILK

Vitamin D

The Cool Way to the SACRAMENTO VALLEY

Above all - fly

SWA SOUTHWEST AIRWAYS

California's Own Scheduled Airline

Call Watsonville 2-0124 or your travel agent

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

3 DAY SPECIAL Reserve

Santa Cruz 9373rd VAR FLIGHT

meets Wednesday NIGHT at 8 o'clock

ROY ALDERSON

USED CAR LOT 345 Soquel Ave. Phone 4130

State of California, County of Santa Cruz—ss. I, F. HINDS, President, D. L. CAVE, Cashier, Bank No. 173 Correct—Attest: A. L. PHILLIPS, STANFORD G. SMITH, J. H. GARRETT, Directors other than the officers signing the report.

Severally subscribed and sworn to before me by both deponents, this 9th day of October, 1953. W. H. PENNIMAN, Notary Public in and for said County of Santa Cruz, State of California, Oct. 13