FOR BUNKER HILL TO-DAY. Celebration of the Battle Anniversary to Be Held at Glenwood.

Salutes Will Be Fired at the Army Posts and Flags Displayed in This City.

One hundred and nineteen years ago today one of the most important battles of the American Revolution was fought on a little hill just outside of Boston.

In this City and vicinity the anniversary will be fittingly observed. D. T. Sullivan, Chief of the Fire Department, has ordered flags displayed from every engine-house in the City, and General Forsyth, commander of the Department of California, United States Army, has decreed that at the Presidio and every military station around the harbor salutes shall be fired with fitting ceremony.

In honor of the day the Bunker Hill Association will hold a grand celebration at Glenwood Park. Two special trains will run down this morning, and so great has been the demand for tickets that the trains cannot accommodate the delegation from San Jose, and therefore will make no stop at that city.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon literary exercises will be held in the pavilion at Glenwood Park. Joaquin Miller will read one of his own poems, and patriotic addresses will be delivered by Rev. C. O. Brown and Professor Ebenezer Knowlton of this City, and by Rev. Mrs. Wilkes of Oakland. The entire literary programme is as follows:

Overture, grand medley of patriotic airs, orchestra; prayer, Rev. T. J. Lay of St. Luke's, chaplain of the day; opening remarks, William G. Badger, president of the day; song, "Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. W. F. Miller; J. J. O'Neil, Sec. C. O. Brown, first in the line; Church; song, "Sword of Bunker Hill," Robert Dunbar; poem, Joaquin Miller; song, "Red, White and Blue," Mrs. John Fetter; decorating Bunker Hill Monument, during which the band will play National airs; benediction, by the chaplain.

Returning trains will leave Glenwood Park for this City at 5 o'clock sharp.

The Emperor of Germany has finally decided, against the advice of many prominent generals, to reintroduce the light attached to the rifle upon all occasions except when on the march. Since the introduction of quick-firing guns, bayonet charges have been regarded as almost obsolete. Emperor William, however, thinks otherwise.

REVIEW OF REAL ESTATE.

The First Half of the Year Will Show Some Improvement.

TRANSFERS OF THE WEEK.

Many Building Contracts Are Under Way—Loan Association News.

The usual spring auction business is now over and the leading dealers are busy cleaning up accumulated details.

One feature of these auction sales was manifest to all, and that was that it is not a year in which to sell undesirable or unproductive property, no matter whether the property has indifferent improvements or those of a substantial character.

A few efforts to sell property of this kind have failed utterly, as the people who are in the market to invest are seeking either bargains or cheap property, which it is safe to predict will rapidly enhance in value.

Real estate men are no longer apprehensive that business is going to be worse, and now as they stand near the threshold of the last half of the year, they look back and say: "The first six months of 1895 will mark considerable improvement."

One of the reasons of the recent quietness was a financial one. Unless money may be had readily and at a moderate rate of interest real estate transactions will be greatly hindered. A majority of the sales of realty made in this City are made subject to mortgage, the seller asking for cash, while the buyer turns to the bank to furnish him with from one-third to a half of the purchase price.

In many instances sales are made subject to mortgage, and banks are called upon to renew the loan. In either case the savings banks are the principal lenders, and on their disposition to lend rests the sale of much property.

Records indicate considerable improvement in this condition of affairs in San Francisco during the past six months.

BUSINESS OF THE WEEK. 20 deeds Monday, consideration, $2,325. 20 deeds Tuesday, consideration, $5,708. 19 deeds Wednesday, consideration, $2,720. 14 deeds Thursday, consideration, $1,953. 21 deeds Friday, consideration, $4,385. 21 deeds Saturday, consideration, $8,600. 123 deeds for the week, consideration, $87,836.

BUILDING CONTRACTS. During the week building contracts have been recorded as follows:

Adolph Sutro, owner, with G. C. Sweney, contractor; architects, Colley & Lemmer, plumbing, gasfitting, marble floors for a four-story frame building on site of the old Childs House, lately destroyed by fire, total, $249,000, with E. H. Foster, contractor, electric wiring; total, $130,000.

Charles F. Doehring, owner, with Henry Hagens, contractor; architect, R. H. White; all work except plumbing and gasfitting for a three-story frame building on northeast corner of Haight and Scott; cost, $12,000.

Abbie M. Carroll, owner, with George H. Tay Company, contractors; architects, Pissis & Moore; low-pressure steam heating and hot water building; cost, $19,000.

David Devore, owner, with Thomas Elam and William Knowles, contractors; architect, H. H. White; all work for a three-story frame building on Erie, near Howard; cost, $28,000.

C. W. Hall, owner, with H. W. Pritchard, contractor; architects, Halberston & White; all work for alterations and additions to 624 Grove street; cost, $17,775.

Mrs. Bridget Goetzli, owner, with Marcus & Remond, contractors; plans by contractors; all work for 2 1/2-room frame dwelling-houses on east side of Haight street, near Broadway; cost, $12,000.

Margaret I. McNamara, owner, with Neil Molloy, contractor; architect, Fred B. Wood; all work for a one-story frame building on east line of Capp, near Seventeenth; cost, $29,215.

D. S. Kent, owner, with Thomas H. Roche, contractor; architect, J. J. Clark; all work on church building on north-west line of Brannan, near Fourth; cost, $84,340.

Richard J. Conroy, owner, with Richard Fahy, contractor; architect, none; all work for a frame dwelling, with basement, on east line of Geary, near Broadway; cost, $30,000.

Charles F. Doehring with C. J. Lawton, to erect a three-story frame building on the northeast corner of Haight and Scott streets; $14,975.

Congregation Shalom with Henry Rolling, contractor; architect, none; all work for a two-story church on south line of Bush street, east of Laguna; $12,900.

Louis G. Hetty with J. J. Manseau, to build a two-story building on the north line of Eddy street, 49-2 feet west of Scott; $37,750.

Laura Albrecht with Marcus & Remond, contractors; architect, J. J. Clark; all work for a three-story building on the south line of Ellis street, 137-3 feet east of Franklin; $47,760.

S. Granucci with J. J. O'Brien, additions and alterations on the east line of Stockton street, 71-9 feet north of Pacific; $22,000.

BUILDING NOTES. In a few days the Post and Kearny street frontages of the clothing store of Roos Bros. will be one continuous show window.

The change necessary to accomplish this, now being made, will cost $300.

Job Heyman, the owner of Boulevard No. 772, has just finished a house of eight rooms on the east side of Forty-third avenue, south of J street, about 200 feet from the ocean boulevard. It was built for William Gerke, who will use the upper portion as a residence and the lower part as a bicycle retreat. As this is the first house to be erected on the south side of the Park in that direction, it will stand as a landmark in years to come.

At a cost of $10,000 a cafe restaurant is being built on the corner of the new Phelan building at the gore. In the floors, wainscoting and stairs are used quantities of Inyo marble, while the finishing is of oak and white cedar, ornamented with mirrors.

Under the new measures of light and fire the present very attractive appearance. Gus Schwarz and Alights Bath, the proprietors, have spared no amount of money to make it one of the leading restaurants of the city.

It is reported that $45,000 will be spent in building improvements at the southeast corner of Vallejo and Gough streets, comprising six dwellings on Gough and one on Vallejo street.

Fifteen houses are in course of construction on the block recently sold by Shainwald, Buckbee & Co., between Twenty-first and Twenty-second and York street and Bryant avenue.

Adjoining St. Teresa's Church, on the corner of Geary and Tennessee streets, a new clergy house is to be erected.

On the lot next to the Star of the Sea Church building, on Eighth avenue, between Point Lobos avenue and Clement Street, a new school will be built by Father Coyle. A person who has not visited Richmond for the last few months would scarcely recognize the place, so steadily has the building gone on in that portion of the city.

The popular hotel, the Langham Hotel, on the corner of Mason and Ellis streets, is to be increased in four weeks, as by that time a new direct electric elevator and other costly improvements are to be made.

There are several other large buildings in this City, notably the Safe Deposit and Flood building, which are undergoing improvements that will have great influence in keeping them well rented.

RECENT SALES. Among recent sales by the Syndicate Investment Company are eleven transfers amounting to $11,255. More than 100 houses have been erected by purchasers.

The land of this company, comprising 60-90 acres, is known as the Rancho de Novato, Marin County. It is but twenty miles from San Francisco by the Donahue railroad, and in many particulars is unexcelled. It is being sold off in from 200 to 500 acre tracts upon very reasonable terms.

O'Farrell & Co. report sales as follows: West line of Devisadero street, running from Geary to Garden avenue, taking in two corners, for $25,000; improvements, store, five dwellings and four flats, for $45,000; south line of Sutter street, near Octavia, three modern flats and lot 27-6x120 for $13,000; three wood-frame houses, six and seven rooms and bath each on Eddy street, lot 50x 137-6, $7,200; three flats on Haight street, near Twenty-second, $2,000; Vered house on Bowie avenue, near Eleventh street, lot 22-6x70, $2,400; lot 25x100 on Mission street, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third, $2,000; lot 25x120 on east line of Twelfth avenue, between H and I streets, $900; in the block at the terminal of the cable cars, on the Mission road, between Francis and G streets, thirty-seven lots, at prices ranging from $400 to $550. Only six of the $400 lots are left.

Sol Getz & Bro., Crocker building, made the following sales of their park lands recently. Lot 32-6x100 on southwest corner of K street and Twenty-second avenue, for $600; lot 50x 120 on west line of Twenty-third avenue, north of K street, for $1,100; lot 25x120 on west line of Eleventh avenue, 173 feet north of J street, for $1,100; lot 25x120 on east line of Ninth avenue, 100 feet south of I street, for $500; lot 25x120 on west line of Seventh avenue, 275 feet south of J street, for $1,000; lot 150x100 on easterly corner of Eddy street and Francis avenue, in Excelsior Homestead, for $1,400, and five lots in Getz addition at Novato, near San Mateo electric car line, for $100 each.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS. The annual report of the Capital Building and Loan Association submitted last Wednesday evening shows the association to be in a prosperous condition. The profit for the year apportioned to shares was $8508.29, the amount of mortgage loans for the year $19,900 and the assets are $87,491. The officers are: L. R. Ellert, president; J. J. O'Brien, vice-president; Herman Shainwald, treasurer; W. H. Davis, secretary; directors—L. R. Ellert, H. A. Jones, H. W. Ball, J. D. Maxwell, H. Shainwald, S. C. Buckbee, L. Greenberg and J. J. O'Brien.

The Pacific Loan Association has matured its first series, which required a period of 127 months. There are $90,000 in the hands of the association, and the borrowers have paid for their homes. Upon the $500 free shares of $200 per share $170,000 are to be paid out. The secretary, Leon Denery, reports that numerous loans have been paid off and that the delinquents are being all work except plumbing and gasfitting.

Bovee, Toy & Co. have been especially fortunate in listing some of the most choice investment and speculative propositions in country lands ever offered in the West. The list of these lands, which will be sold off in tracts to suit purchasers is the well-known McMahon ranch of several thousand acres in Solano and Yolo counties, a part of what is known as the Adams ranch, and the Adams lands recently placed in the hands of this firm. The Bidwell ranch at Chico, the J. S. Cone lands, which extend from the celebrated Vina ranch of the Stanford estate to McCreedy, and the Adams ranch on Cache Creek, Yolo county, besides a number of special properties the list of country lands of this firm comprises notable properties in almost every county of the State. Mr. Toy says his firm proposes to consecutively advance the list of these lands, and he does not expect to be repulsed with the claim that California lands are too high, when he can offer good alfalfa lands in Fresno County with water rights and land well irrigated. The lands are as good as rolling unimproved lands as low as $350 an acre; and as rich land as ever a man owned adjoining the Vina ranch for $25 an acre.

From the data secured from the country department of this firm it would appear that the large landed proprietors of the interior of the State have at last come down to figures low enough to encourage investment and advance the general interests of the State.

W. M. Coward, formerly of Woodland, has taken charge of the country department of Bovee, Toy & Co., and associated with E. H. Eldridge & Co.

A feature of the catalogue of country lands offered by Thomas McMahon at 625 Market street is an exchange list of small desirable ranches in the various counties of California. San Francisco, Mr. McMahon reports that what purchases are made of country lands are by home people, and principally by shrewd investors, who realize that now is the time to buy in view of the very marked advance in country values soon to follow.

A road is being constructed by the Government along the southern boundary of the Presidio military reservation from First avenue to the lake at the Marine Hospital, then winding over the hills to McDowell avenue, leading to the high bluffs overlooking the ocean. This improvement will necessitate the construction of a bridge across Mountain Lake. A. E. Buckman, contractor, has been awarded the work in sixty days, and when finished it promises to be a beautiful drive the like of which San Francisco should have to boast.

ADDRESS BY MRS. COOPER. An interesting programme at a gathering of the Epworth League.

The auditorium of the Simpson Memorial Methodist Church was well filled last evening by the members and friends of the Epworth League. The announcement of the affair had been made to the public, and in order that the occasion might be made uncommonly notable the usual Sunday evening service was dispensed with.

Mrs. Sarah B. Cooper delivered an interesting and instructive address, "The Discipline of Suffering," in which she explained that the law of conflict is the law of life and that trust in divine wisdom and the every-day trials and tribulations in human life. Mrs. Nellie Holbrook rendered a patriotic bit of verse, and with songs and an earnest address by Rev. Dr. Hirst the programme was completed.

The coins of Siam are made of procelain; those of Japan are made principally of iron.

THE COMING TURN FEST.

Local Turner Societies Are All Ready for the Los Angeles Event.

LIVELY INTEREST AROUSED.

The Mission Verein Will Send Twelve Men and the Vorwaerts Sixteen Contestants.

If the members of the Pacific Coast Turners' societies who will participate in the grand Kreis Turn Fest, which opens in Los Angeles on the 22d inst. and lasts until the 27th, are as enthusiastic in preparing for the affair as are our local Turners, the event in the southern city will be the most successful of any of its kind ever held in the West.

In local Turners' circles the celebration has been talked of for months past, and the classes of the four City vereins which will participate have been hard at work training for the exercises. Rivalry for the valuable trophies and prizes is going to be keen, and no outcome can be fairly predicted for any of the events, as the majority of the eighty-four Turners who will go from this City are young men who have not participated in any big festival before. They are, though, according to their instructors, all men of promise.

The San Francisco Turn Verein, which will send down the largest delegation—thirty-four—and the turners' section of the Verein Eintracht completes their arrangements some time ago, and the same has been published in the CALL. The other two societies are the Mission Turners and the Vorwaerts Verein, and they are now all prepared for the "good time coming."

The Mission Turn Verein, which has for years been a progressive society in the district from which it takes its name, has decided to send twelve men to the southern city. The members held their last practical lesson yesterday at the Seaside Gardens, Harbor View, under their instructor, Albert Binse, and First Leader John C. Plato. There was hardly a hitch in their efforts and the athletes are more than convinced that they will carry off some of the top-notch prizes.

Besides the well-known Turners, who are in the fine condition for competition, the members will be stimulated to use their very best efforts by the fact that their lady friends have put them on their mettle as it were. The Turners' Schwestern Verein is the ladies auxiliary of the club, and several days ago the fair ones presented the Turn-fest delegation with a white silk banner at the hall, corner of Eighteenth and Laidlaw streets, and at the same time expressed the hope that the contestants would reflect credit upon their handsome emblem by performing unusual feats. On this account each member will feel like a knight of old upon entering the tournament lists with his "fair lady's" token floating from his helmet.

The members of the Mission Verein will leave this city on Friday evening by special train. On their return they will be tendered a grand reception by the vereins.

Following are those who will compose the delegation: Instructor, Albert Binse; first leader, John C. Plato; John Vermeiren, William Messerth, Julius Meyer, M. Oeschke, Thomas Steen, Oscar Carson, Fred Wagner, William Bahr, Alexander Huck.

The Vorwaerts Verein has chosen sixteen men to represent it at the festival, and the hope of winning prizes runs high in the breasts of the men of muscle and skill who have been practicing under the care of their instructor, Hermann Ritter, and First Leader M. Lehmann in their hall on O'Farrell street, near Mason. Although Instructor Ritter has not been with the vereins many months he has become very popular among his pupils, and has introduced new features in their work which have been appreciated.

Some of the delegation which goes south are specialists in their respective lines. Mr. Lehmann is looked upon as their fencing champion, and is also a fine declaimer. In the swimming contest which will be held when the excursion to Santa Catalina Islands is made from Los Angeles on the day before the great festival closes, the Vorwaerts are confident that their champion, Gustave Palanca, will easily carry off the first prize. He is a young man, but has made quite a record for himself in the past.

The contestants from the Vorwaerts will be as follows: Instructor, Herman Ritter; first leader, M. Lehmann; W. F. Baker, N. J. Frank, Joseph Kaiser, August Brockstadt, A. Sommer, H. Grunwald, G. Palanca, H. Radloff, A. Hammer, F. Dolmuth, F. Rothchild, A. Littlewood, E. Tietze, W. Boldefeld.

The Vorwaerts men will go south on the steamer Santa Rosa in company with the San Francisco Verein and arrangements have been made to have a royal good time on the trip.

Very Few Competitions at the Military Ranges Across the Bay. Close Match Between a Quartet of Artillerymen—Some Minor Contests.

The season of military encampments is now well on and rifle practice at the bay ranges has quieted down considerably. This was quite noticeable at Shell Mound yesterday. Compared with the usual large attendance of riflemen the gathering was numerically insignificant. Some interesting work was done, however, by the marksmen who spent the day at the target, albeit a strong wind swept across the range during the entire afternoon. The Second Artillery was represented by a few members of Battery C, who had been prevented from accompanying the regiment to Ukiah on Saturday. A match was arranged with M. Sheehan and L. Ringen as one of the teams and C. Viebrook and H. Mangels on the opposing side. The firing was done with Springfields, in ten shots at 200 yards. The contest was close and exciting from the start, and until the last few shots were fired there was little chance of telling who were to be the victors. As it was, Sheehan and Ringen led their opponents by only a single point. The scores were registered as follows: M. Sheehan, 40; C. Viebrook, 43; L. Ringen, 45; H. Mangels, 41.

Total, 185. Total, 84.

This was the most interesting contest of the day and was fraught with more genuine excitement than has been witnessed at Siebe's range for a long time.

Captain H. Sime and a few of his light battery men disguised the targets on the revolver range for a while during the afternoon. Among the scores recorded were Sergeant C. de Veuve 45, Charles Robinson 45, Lieutenant Holcombe 44, Captain Sime 43, Sergeant Eugene Hawkins 43, W. Clark 41, C. Hahn 37.

Captain Siebe, the proprietor of the range, tried his skill at the pistol targets with Colonel Burns, another old National Guardsman. The results of Captain Siebe's target-hitting showed in this style on the scorebook: 5 5 5 4 4 5 5 4 3-45.

Colonel Burns also scored 45, but was "Creedmoored" by Siebe. In this match, as in the light battery affair, the distance was fifty yards.

Among the best scores made by members of Company F, First Infantry, in the monthly practice competition were these: H. J. Mangels, 5 5 4 5 5 4 4 5 4-46; W. W. McGowan, 5 4 5 4 4 5 4 5 4-44; J. S. Jones, 5 4 5 4 5 4 5 4 4-43; C. McMenomy, 5 4 4 5 3 5 4 4-43; J. Volte, 4 4 4 4 5 3 5 4 4-43; Lieutenant Cursons, 4 4 4 4 5 3 5 4 4-43; H. Gordon, 4 0 4 4 4 5 0 4 5-37; J. W. South, 4 0 4 4 4 5 0 4 5-37; F. Noriega, 2 4 3 5 3 4 4 3 4-33.

At the Oakland race track, near Shell Mound, the Recreation Gun Club conducted a live bird contest, each marksman firing at twelve birds. The scores were: Slade 11, Ross 10, Barney 10, Butler 10, Whitney 9, Haight 9, Simpson 8, Johnson 8, Randall 9, Brown 7, H. Golcher 7.

Slade was awarded the first prize, Ross the second and Barney the third.

Edward Lee and M. Connolly 28, Michael Brady 30, David Russell 33, John O'Neill 26, T. J. Donnelly 27, Michael Mannix 30, John Kelemelic 28, James Longstregh 28, Thomas Smith 28, Thomas Murphy 25, Eugene Driscoll 22, John Green 38.

There was no shooting done by the German societies at Shell Mound, the departure of the crack shots for Eastern cities having interfered to some extent with the usual programme. Helm, Bendel, Stauser, Faktor, Alpers, Wreden, Swarb and Ehrenfort left yesterday for Milwaukee to represent the San Francisco Schuetzen Verein in the great competitions. They will join the Columbia Club representatives at that city, and after participating with them in rifle contests there, they will proceed to New York to try for additional honors.

On June 23 and 24 there will be a number of trap-shooting matches at the Oakland racetrack for which elaborate preparations are being made.

Irving's Experience With Hissing. "In my early days," says our greatest actor, "I accepted a stock engagement at a provincial theater, and did not know until I got there that I had been put into the place of an actor who was locally very popular. He had not left, I believe, on a regular good terms with the management, so that the audience who were displeased upon his successor. I was that unfortunate person, and for a whole week or more I was hissed every night, not for my bad acting, but out of love for my predecessor. I remember how every night I walked to my rooms, some two miles out of town, very wretched, and walked in again the next night no less miserable. To this day I never pass the place by railway without a shudder."—Tid Bits.
