To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of the City of San Francisco: In consideration of the shocking revelations of crime that have recently been brought to light through the proceedings and the press we, the committee appointed from the women's mass-meeting of November 25, 1895, do respectfully urge the best and earnest attention to your honorable body to the following as methods and aids to better moral and social conditions of our city, and to which we respectfully claim your attention:

Resolved, That the importance of applying their crimes and moral vices are to be found in vicious and tainted environments, imperfect sanitation, and the criminal indifference and negligence and carelessness of parents and sure teaching and example leading toward juvenile and early vicious habits, and that we, the women of San Francisco, realizing, in all evidence of life, and all citizens are alike watch of the train and of the public equality in which they reside, and should, therefore, be equally interested in the welfare both by words of encouragement and admonition, whether in the home, the courts or the jail, and that we, as women, have the same duty of good and tender women to both guard and aid children, therefore be it

Resolved, That inasmuch as we, mothers and other earnest women of the city, being fully conscious of the importance of the best and purest to us through recent atrocities of evil men, that have desecrated the sanctity of our homes, violated the rights of our children, outraged and debauched and defiled the innocence of virgin babes of this City, we believe that the time has come for the enactment of laws that requires the co-operation and advice and of women, upon whom much of the future of good citizenship and National manhood devolves, and in which, recognizing our great responsibility in the future of the race, the exercise of being allowed an equal voice in those vital questions which for the safety and the future of our children can no longer be set aside or ignored; and

Resolved, That we believe it to be expedient, and for the best interests of the city, in the matter of morality, decency and a purer municipality and a safeguard to our homes that one or more women be appointed as City inspector or inspectress, whose duties shall be to make a careful inspection of all houses reported to our home to ascertain and enforce sanitary regulations relative to the overcrowding of sleeping apartments, and to report to the Police Commissioners all cases of evil resort and to lend such encouragement and counsel as may be needed in instituting proceedings for the abatement of the nuisance of Police, under whose supervision they may be pursued; and

Resolved, That all cases requiring a surgeon or a post-mortem examination of women and girls, common decency and a proper consideration for the feelings of relatives demand the final demands that a woman as physician, or in any regular capacity best becoming a woman, such be employed, whether in the hospital, the court, the prison or any other public institution, and that we, as women, claim the [illegible] as the insight of the people, irrespective of sex.

ADELE L. BALLOU, Chairman.
MRS. ROSE D. FRANCK, Secretary.

Mrs. S. C. Sanford was introduced and accorded a hearty reception. The lady said:

It occurred to me while you were discussing the resolutions that whether the Supervisors would grant the request or not it would be well to demand that the subordinate of the City shall employ women. You sigh for a vocation yet do not see all the opportunities we have. Three doors connect it by dentist to as many physicians. Each one of them has a wife, or may yet be dead? A few of us, with a cool, a whisky breath and an irreverent air. It was the duty of every woman to look after the well-being of her patient. I went that her home, demand that women shall be employed by us. Demand that women shall be employed by us. Demand that women shall be employed by us.
