

THE DAILY BEE. SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 5, 1880.

THE CONVENTION.
Fourth Day of the Session.
As Adjournment Not Expected Before Monday.
The Convention adjourned at 10 o'clock this morning, after a session of the day which was not particularly interesting. The session was devoted to the consideration of the report of the committee on the petition of the citizens of the city of Sacramento, for the annexation of the city to the county of Yuba. The committee reported that they had held several public hearings on the subject, and had received many suggestions from the citizens. They recommended that the annexation be granted, and that the city be incorporated as a city of the county of Yuba. The convention adjourned until Monday morning, when it is expected to adjourn for good.

COAST DISPATCHES.
San Francisco, June 5. - The schooner "Albatross" has been wrecked on the coast of California. The vessel was bound for San Francisco, and was carrying a large cargo of goods. The crew and passengers were rescued, but the vessel was a total loss.

WATER SUPPLY.
The water supply in the city of Sacramento is becoming very scarce. The reservoirs are nearly empty, and the rivers are running low. It is feared that there will be a serious shortage of water in the near future.

MARKET REPORTS.
The market for grain is very quiet. The price of wheat is steady, and the price of corn is slightly higher. The market for stock is also quiet, and the prices are generally steady.

LOCAL MATTERS.
The city council has passed a resolution to purchase a new fire engine. The council also passed a resolution to purchase a new street car. The city council also passed a resolution to purchase a new piece of machinery for the city hall.
