SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, SUNDAY, AUGUST 1, 1897.

THE EMPORIUM, AUGUST 1, 1897.

Monday and every day this week will be "Gala Days" for bargain-hunters—departments that are moving out of the Emporium are selling at cost—in some instances for less. Departments that are remaining are clearing summer stocks. The new organization is fast being perfected.

Truth Plainly Told Is All The Advertising Worthy Goods Demand

Monday and every day this week will be "Gala Days" for bargain-hunters—departments that are moving out of the Emporium are selling at cost—in some instances for less. Departments that are remaining are clearing summer stocks. The new organization is fast being perfected.

Handkerchiefs, Ladies' Shirt Liners, Handkerchiefs, unaltered, would be a bargain at 25c. Special at, each, 15c. We also offer this week a very pretty, finished, Ladies' Handkerchief, for 10c.

Ladies' Gloves. We have all of our "Gala" day's new gloves from the old "Gala" day's stock. They are all of the best quality and at a bargain at 25c. A pair.

Department Moving Out. First Sale of Clothing. But little time remains for the disposal of the large stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing now in the Emporium. The new management assumes charge of this department early next month and in the interval the stock now on hand will be disposed of at unusually reduced prices.

The stock includes several thousand dollars' worth of the Hub's Fine Clothing, a part of our recent purchase at the well-known firm used their Summer stock.

A windfall of bargains await the early comers, who will not be disappointed by finding their sizes gone, or the best things all sold.

Notwithstanding the brevity of the sale prices all garments will be sold in full, if necessary, without extra charge.

How to Save in Dressmaking. The Emporium's new management. New dressmaking. For one we make tailor-made suits, one we make to order a boy or girl and long workshirts all employed to make our stock. Prices are very low. Four color suits to order for $10 and $10 that are all for the best. All dressmaking very well done.

All Ladies' Garments. Mightily Summer. Ladies' Blouses. Mark them as they will be sold. Don't have a garment left when the season ends—that's the manager's rule in the department. Goods will be sold. That which was cheap last month is far cheaper today. Fine garments under sale.

Balance of Millinery. Wash Hats. The new manager has marked down Untrimmed Stapes in Straw for Ladies or Misses to 25c, 35c, 35c, and 50c. All Trimmings that now remain after a big season must go at any price. Original Paris Models now $2.50, $3.50, $4.50 and $5.00. All Flowers now half-price.

Wash Goods. Half Price. All of our Wash Goods—the Organizes, Emules and Linens effects—connected to the present lines shown this season, now marked at half price to effect an immediate clearance.

Short Lengths. Fine Carpets. We have still a few lengths of the White, Red, Brown, and Navy patterns and colorings, ranging in length from 20 to 40 yards. If you have rooms to carpet these lengths will not cost you more than half the price.
