

THE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, MONDAY, AUGUST 10, 1896.

BENJAMIN L. MARKLEY.

MONSTER MEETING FOR TEMPERANCE.

The League of the Cross fills the Mechanics' Pavilion.

MEINLEY'S VICTORY

He Wins the Gold Medal for the Best Essay of the Year.

ADDRESS BY THE ARCHBISHOP
His Grace Speaks to an Immense Audience and Gives an Oration.

An immense crowd of people gathered Monday afternoon in the Mechanics' Pavilion on the occasion of a grand rally and essay contest by the League of the Cross.

Arrangements had been made for nearly seven thousand, but the accommodations were wholly insufficient for the throng that packed the floor of the large building. Nearly 3000 boys of members of the League occupied tables in the aisles and around the perimeter of the hall, and many of these boys were seated on the floor.

At 6:30 o'clock the Rev. Archbishop of San Francisco, who presided over the proceedings, addressed the assembly in a most interesting and able manner. His speech was a full and complete exposition of the principles of the League of the Cross, and was listened to with the greatest interest by the thousands who were present.

The Archbishop's address was followed by the reading of the essays, which were received from all parts of the city and the suburbs. The reading was conducted in a most interesting and able manner by the Rev. Mr. J. J. Conroy, who presided over the proceedings.

The essays were read in the order of the names of the writers, and the reading was continued until nearly midnight.

The Archbishop's address was most interesting and able, and was listened to with the greatest interest by the thousands who were present.
