

WORDSWORTH'S BAD TEMPER

He Attempts to Attack an Attorney.

Knoss Remounts His Profane Remarks.

More Evidence Adduced to Support the Theory of Conspiracy.

From Boston to the Chronicle.—At a public trial held in the city of Boston, July 27, at 10 o'clock, the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution.

He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

DECEASE OF THE WITNESS.

Witnesses on Stand with the Meantime.

Witnesses on stand with the Meantime. The Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

DRIFTING ON THE ROCKS.

The Submarine Boat in Distress at Point Barrow.

The Submarine Boat in Distress at Point Barrow. The Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

A BUNGLING FORGER.

G. G. Sandick Arrested by the Police.

The Swindler's Boon Trip to Chicago.

Several People Victimized by Springs Critical Bank Checks.

A man recently from Chicago, acting in the name of G. G. Sandick, was arrested by Detective Reynolds at the residence of the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, on Saturday, July 27.

PERJURY UNCHARGED.

C. C. Rimini and C. R. Bess Arrested.

Witnesses for the defense of C. G. Sandick, C. C. Rimini and C. R. Bess, were arrested by Detective Reynolds at the residence of the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, on Saturday, July 27.

TO THE CLIFF HOUSE.

MASS MEETING TO AID SUBMERSIBLE BOAT.

Richmond citizens are asked to subscribe to the project.

The Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

UNNECESSARY ALARM.

DELICATESSES.

The Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

PATRIOTIC PUPILS.

Exercises in the Public Schools.

All of Them Did Not Have Programmes.

One Afternoon Each Sixth Invented on the Flag of the Republic.

Public exercises were resumed in the public schools yesterday. The flag of the Republic was the subject of the exercises.

DEATH WATH ORDERED.

THE STRIKE IS OFF.

FEDERAL NUTS.

CONGRESS IN BREEZE.

COGNITION FORWARDED.

The Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

A VALUABLE ADDITION.

BORDEN'S PEERLESS.

being pure, unadulterated condensed milk, prepared with the same conscientious attention to detail as characterized all the products of the New York Condensed Milk Company.

ALL THE NEWSTHINGS IN THE WORLD.

A GOD-GIVEN GIFT.

The Boy Phenomenon Has Conquered the World.

Contents of the Public.

A ICE-BOND FLEET.

SIX WRECKERS IN THE ARCTIC REGIONS.

A telegram was published in a morning paper, stating that a number of whaling vessels had been wrecked in the Arctic regions.

DEATH WATH ORDERED.

THE STRIKE IS OFF.

FEDERAL NUTS.

CONGRESS IN BREEZE.

COGNITION FORWARDED.

The Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, was the witness for the prosecution. He testified that he had been advised by the Honorable Attorney General, William F. Knoss, that he should not make any statements in relation to the case, but that he should be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked him.

A VALUABLE ADDITION.

BORDEN'S PEERLESS.

being pure, unadulterated condensed milk, prepared with the same conscientious attention to detail as characterized all the products of the New York Condensed Milk Company.

ALL THE NEWSTHINGS IN THE WORLD.