

ONLY DEATH MAKES CALL FOR ALEXANDER SUTRO, FOES OF LOUD

Country Democrats Have a Hard Time Choosing State Convention Delegates.

BARRY AND MINAB, HAD TICKETS.

The Democratic City and County Committee was in session until 1 o'clock this morning, trying to elect fifty-three delegates to the State Convention.

Twenty-eighth District—Martin J. Henry 68, Thirtieth—Thomas Gandy 62, John Henry 61, Robert Walsh 60.

In addition John Massey and S. A. Byrne were elected unanimously to represent the Thirty-fifth district, they being the only nominees for the two vacancies in that district.

Local and State Issues Bring the Partisans in Force to Ward Meetings.

STOCKTON, August 8.—The warmest fight known in Republican politics in this city for many years was that which brought out nearly every Republican voter to the caucuses, or ward meetings, this evening.

On account of the large vote polled at the ward meetings none of the counts had been finished at midnight.

San Francisco's Good Showing in the Imports and Exports of the Country.

WASHINGTON, August 8.—The report of the Bureau of Statistics in its compilation regarding the import and export trade of the country, and comparing the year's business with that of preceding years, says:

Our increased commerce with Asia and Oceania has materially and advantageously affected the receipts in her share of the commerce of the country.

Close of the Career of the Millionaire and Philanthropist.

ADOLPH SUTRO AND HIS HOME NEAR THE OCEAN.

EVENTFUL LIFE TERMINATED.

"I Am Pretty Well," the Last Words Uttered by the Former Mayor to the Relatives at His Bedside.

Disposition of the Vast Estate Yet to Be Made Known, Though The Heights and the Library May Go to the Public.

ADOLPH SUTRO AND HIS HOME NEAR THE OCEAN.

It was at this home, on "The Heights," that the millionaire desired to die, but his illness caused him to be taken to his daughter's home for medical treatment, and there was no return until after death.

"I AM pretty well," were the last words of Adolph Sutro.

The millionaire and philanthropist thus spoke to his son, Charles W. Sutro, on Sunday afternoon, replying to an inquiry about his condition.

After midnight the attending physicians noted an alarming condition of the pulse.

Early in the forenoon the body of the dead millionaire was taken to Sutro Heights—the ocean-side home which the builder had planned for the restful sunset hours of his life.

The flowers and the trees and the white statues seemed as attractive as ever, but there was a strange stillness about the place, and to have the people shut out was unusual and almost startling.

When Dr. Emma Merritt was appointed guardian of her father last February the Sutro estate was appraised at $2,493,772.

It had long been Mayor Sutro's desire and intention to give the Sutro Heights property to the city.

Whether there are to be any public benefits under the will or not, Mr. Sutro carried out his plan in public measure.

"I asked him how he was," said this son, yesterday afternoon, "and he replied: 'I am pretty well.' But that was what he always

The Congressman From the Fifth District Will Have a Fight on His Hands.

WOLFE'S FRIENDS ARE HARD AT WORK

The Republican opponents of Congressman Loud in the Fifth Congressional District, are formulating plans toward the organization of a concentrated movement against him in the nominating convention.

Loud has one advantage in the contest. His opponents have not agreed to back any particular candidate.

DAVIS' WORDS HAVE ATTRACTED ATTENTION.

He Thinks That More Republicans Should Hold Office in Alameda County.

OAKLAND, August 8.—The following remarks attributed to William R. Davis at a meeting in the Fifth Ward have attracted considerable attention in the county.

"I often wonder how some things in Alameda county are possible. We are known throughout the State as a progressive county.

JUDGE MCKINSTRY SPEAKS OF A WILL.

Ex-Judge E. W. McKinstry, who for several years has had charge of some of the most important litigation in the city, said that he had no knowledge of any will having been made recently by Mr. Sutro.

HOW SUTRO'S FORTUNE IS TO BE DIVIDED.

Little remains to be told about ex-Mayor Sutro, except the disposition that he made of his fortune.

Everybody knows the often-published life of the man, who was born at Ah-in-Chapello, France, on April 23, 1820, and who, avoiding an inclination to mechanics and astronomy, followed in the cloth business with his brothers, and in 1848 emigrated to America.

THE MAN WHO IS TO MARRY MISS SUTRO.

CHICAGO, August 8.—W. J. English of 6008 Monroe avenue is engaged to Clara Sutro, youngest daughter of Adolph Sutro, the dead millionaire. The engagement was announced early in June.

EGAR TO REFORM PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

M. M. Estee Believes, However, That a Constitutional Amendment May Be Necessary.

The sub-committee appointed by the committee recently constituted to draft a Primary Election Law, met last night at the office of M. M. Estee.

The committee also decided to suggest that a primary election law should provide for one primary election in each year.

LOS ANGELES IS SOLID FOR GAGE.

Senator Bulla Says the Republican Delegation Will Be a Unit on the Governorship.

"No one in Los Angeles," said the Senator, "is opposing the nomination of Henry Gage for Governor. I cannot speak for the other counties of the south, but Los Angeles is sure to send a solid delegation to the State Convention for Mr. Gage."

LOS ANGELES DEMOCRATS OPPOSED TO BARLOW.

Efforts Are Making to Induce the Congressional Nominee to Withdraw from the Fight.

LOS ANGELES, August 8.—The old-time Democrats of this section are not entirely satisfied that Congressman Charles A. Barlow should again carry the fusion standard.
