A Daughter Saved.

WONDERFUL RECOVERY OF MISS HATTIE KING.

Children in the End and after the Triage of Hattie—She Finds a Bunch when Hope had Almost Fled—The Best Physicians Failed to do Anything for Her.

Miss Hattie King, of Honolulu, who was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. King, died at the age of 18 years, after a long and painful illness, which had been attended by the best physicians in Honolulu and San Francisco.

She was born in Honolulu, and her father was a prominent merchant in that city. She was educated in Honolulu and San Francisco, and was a member of the Young Women's Christian Association.

She was afflicted with a severe case of tuberculosis, which had been contracted in Honolulu. She had been in San Francisco for several years, and had been attended by the best physicians in that city.

Her condition was so bad that she was thought to be beyond hope. Her father, Mr. King, was a prominent merchant in Honolulu, and she was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. King.

She was attended by the best physicians in Honolulu and San Francisco, but they were unable to do anything for her. Her father, Mr. King, was a prominent merchant in Honolulu, and she was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. King.
