SEMI-OFFICIAL COUNT OF VOTES

What the Returns Show at the Registrar's Office.

The Successful Candidates for Municipal Offices Are Announced.

ONE RECOUNT IS DEMANDED.

It Is Believed That the Official Count Will Not Change the Results Materially.

From an early hour yesterday morning until after midnight hundreds of anxious politicians crowded about the Registrar's office to learn the result of the semi-official count of municipal ballots. Great interest was manifested in the fights that were close, but the accounts were kept so busy with their work that no information was given out until near midnight, at which time a tabulated statement was issued showing the election of Hebbard, Cook, Dunne and Hunt as Superior Judges.

Judge Hebbard received 30,765 votes, being in the lead of all others. Dunne's vote was 23,877 and Cook's 23,801, while Hunt got 16,898, Murasky crowding him with 16,065.

It became apparent early in the day that Broderick had won the fight for Auditor and Widder that for Treasurer. The closest fight was in the Twenty-third Senatorial District, where Tyrrell came within 23 of defeating Hall. He alleged fraud in the Thirty-first Assembly District and demanded a recount.

The following officers are seen to be elected by the semi-official returns, and while the official count will change the figures some it will not affect the result:

A. C. Widder is elected Treasurer; Charles S. Tilton, Surveyor; Harry T. Creswell, City and County Attorney; R. H. Webster, Superintendent of Schools; William F. Ambrose, Superintendent of Streets; J. A. Campbell, Charles T. Conlan, H. L. Joachimsen and A. C. Low, Police Judges; G. C. Groezinger, J. Barry, Frank H. Kerrigan, G. W. F. Cook and J. A. Carroll, Justices of the Peace.

Supervisors—First Ward, Lawrence Devany; Second Ward, Thomas H. Haskins; Third Ward, F. M. Delaney; Fourth Ward, John H. Sheehan; Fifth Ward, Dr. Washington Dodge; Seventh Ward, Dr. Tullis A. Rottazzi; Eighth Ward, Thomas Morton; Ninth Ward, James E. Britt; Tenth Ward, Edward J. Smith; Eleventh Ward, Dr. C. A. Clinton; Twelfth Ward, Thomas W. Rivers.

People complained of the slowness of the counting, though the clerks all worked as fast as possible. There were 250 long columns of figures to add and nearly 80,000 sheets of figures to handle.

It is believed by the Registrar that the cost of this election will exceed $200,000, though considerable money was saved in clerk hire and on bills for rubber stamps. The bill this year was $172 for stamps, against $800 for last election.

There was much excitement about 1 o'clock when Deputy Registrar McElde rushed into the police office and ordered warrants for all of the members of the election board from the Thirtieth Precinct of the Thirty-third District. It was known that they left their headquarters at 9 o'clock, and when four hours had passed there were no signs of them.

Chief Crowley telephoned to Captain Spillie to put all members of the board under arrest, but before the captain could get started out the board appeared. The explanation of the delay was that an error had been committed the night before by placing some of the returns in the wrong envelopes. The board could not open them until all were present, and the time was put in hunting for the missing members.

The totals on the semi-official municipal count were not finally tabulated until after 2 o'clock this morning. The figures complete are as follows:
