MRS. VAN ZANDT.

The Coroner Investigating the Cause of Her Death.

HER PROTECTOR'S STORY.

Miss Chaffee Says She Saw Dr. Moore Kiss Mrs. Van Zandt During Her IIIness-Medical Testimony.

The Coroner's inquest into the case of Mrs. Maud Emma Van Zandt, on account of whose - Moore has been arrested on a death Dr. charge of murder by abortion, was begun in Par lor A of the Palace Hotel yesterday afternoon. William Coggswell testified : I reside in Los Angeles; am an artist; I identified the body of Mrs. Mand E. Van Zandt, a native of Philadel. phia, aged between 33 and 35 years, and the widow of Dr. Van Zandt, Jr. I was in this city from the 1st to the 11th of April, and called frequently on Mrs. Van Zandt, as her protector, and treated her as one of my own family. At the request of Dr. Van Zandt and herself, I gave her such protection as I could. After April 1st I was at her room one evening, and she said to me: "I am feeling badly, and cannot tell what is the matter." I knew she had been drinking a good deal of iceknew she had been drinking a good deal of ice-water, and I thought that probably had cansed congestion. I said so to her, and she said: "I don't know about that." I said: "If you are going to be ill you had better call on my physi-cian, Dr. Moore. I will speak to him about you." She said: "You may do so." I called on Dr. Moore and explained to him about Mrs. Van Zandt's case. I asked him if ice-water could have cansed the sickness, and he said it was possi-Zandt's case. I asked him if ice-water could have caused the sickness, and he said it was possi-

The sale of seats for the Bijon Burlesque engage-ment commenced yesterday and is now in prog-ress, with very satisfactory results. The libretto of "Orpheus and Eurydice" deals with the old mythological tale of the habduction of Orpheus' wife by Pluto and the husband's subsequent search for her in the lower regions. It furnishes ample opportunity for absurd situations and serves as a medium for the introduction of a cloud of gods, moddesses, nymphs, satyrs, graces, muses and goddesses, nymphs, satyrs, graces, muses and other inhabitants of mythological domain. The first presentation of the burlesque will be given on next Monday evening.

On Monday next will be introduced in "The Devil's Auction" a new and very funny musical idea, styled "The Staircase Band," in addition to a new and brilliant ballet divertisement.

At Woodward's Gardens to-morrow afternoon and on Sunday, will appear Naoni, juggler and ball thrower, with whom a special engagement has been made. The Ethiopian characters, Gallagher and West, Miss Jessie Forrester, vocalist : Miss Frances Howard, song and dance artist ; Williams and Arthur, the Harrisons, Miss Virginia Seymour and many others are also announced. The comic pantomime, "The Magic Flute," is the conclud-ing piece. ing piece.

PERSONALS.

Mr. George W. Cable will spend the Summer with his family at Simsbury, Conn.

Mr. Edwin Booth's bandwriting, which so many fine ladies have died to see, is a rare mixture of crabbed crankiness and magniloquent flourish. Samuel P. Warren, Esq., banker, has been elected Treasurer, and H. H. Russell, Right of Way Agent of the U. S. Central Railway Company. Stilson Hutchins, editor of the Washington

Post, is said to contemplate retirement from the newspaper profession. He is largely interested in printing machinery.

Chester A. Arthur's little Nellie has attained the highest position attainable even to the daughter of a President. She has been to the top of the Wash-ington monument, and has assisted in laying one of the sto of the stones. At the sixth annual commencement of Wellesley College, Messachusetts, Rev. Charles Dana Bar-rows of this city delivered the oration. The grad-nating class was a very large one. Many of the leading educators of the Atlantic States were in attenda attendance. Here is a bit from the latest book of remi-niscences of Emerson: "After dinner came a de-lightful talk with Mr. Emerson. He spoke of Mirabeau, and something was said of Dumont's Recollections. 'Yes,' he said, 'that is a good book,' and he quoted Dumont's story about writ-ing Mirabeau's speeches for him. 'Mirabeau,' said Mr. Emerson, 'like Goethe, was a man who mag-netized other people and then considered that he had a right to all they said.'" "For more than twenty-five years of my life,"

"For more than twenty-five years of my life," says John Ruskin, "I would not believe that women could paint pictures. But I was wrong in that established conviction. Women can paint. I am quite subjugated, converted, my ideas entirely overthrown by Mrs. Butler's 'Waterloo.' I found her to be a great artist and have the profoundest admiration for her. Since she made a name we have hed serveral women critics all distinguished admiration for her. Since she made a name we have had several women artists, all listinguished in their different ways—Mrs. Allingham, Miss Greenaway, Miss Alexander and Miss Trotter." MEXICAN WAR VETERANS. Overhauling the Accounts of a Delinquent Screetary. The Associated Veterans of the Mexican War held a meeting at their hall, No. 516 Bryant street, last evening. Captain Wm. L. Duncan co-cupied the chair ; L. B. Hopkins, Secretary. Captain Wm. Blanding read the report of the former Secretary, John C. Robinson. The Trustees had employed an expert, who found a shortage in the cash accounts of Hobinson has since paid $75, leaving a net deficit of $506 23. The Board no yl notice he took of the demand was to send a communication to the Trustees, and the only notice he took of the demand was to send a communication of the late Scretary. The Trustees' report was anything but flattering to the reputation of the late Secretary. The re-port was received and taken up in detail. The list of members who appeared to be in default by the expert's account, taken from the books, showed that the defalcation was larger than the expert made it, several of the members present having receipts for dues which were not marked naid. In the matter of the defalcation of the ex-Secro-tary, a motion to expel was offered, but as the hour was late and no quorum present, it was laid over till the next meeting. A communication was received from that official enclosing bills which he had incurred on behalf of the Association to the amount of about $40. Referred to the Trustees. The committee appointed to wait on General Pope with reference to obtaining a firing party and escort from the Presidio to serve at the fune-ral ceremonies of deceased Veterans, reported favorably, the General having treated them with marked consideration.

friend. Q—What led you to suppose there might be something wrong in her case? A—Well, there was a lover with whom she ap-peared to be very intimate and was in correspond-ence with, and it made me suspicious. Q—How long had she known this friend? A—A year or more. I do not know where she first met him.

The more acting as Mrs. Van Zandt's agent and protector. THE AUTOPSY.

THE AUTOPSY. City and County Physician Blach testified to having made an autopsy on deceased. The cause of death was hemorrhage of the womb, caused by mechanical violence. The wall of the womb was punctured from the outside, the womd being half an inch in width. It was possible that it was self-inflicted, but it was his theory that it had been done by a second nexty.

inflicted, but it was his theory that it had been done by a second party. Dr. Orson B. Thayer testified that he had called on Mrs. Van Zandt at the request of Rev. Mr. Noble. He consulted with Dr. Moore; surmised that the patient suffered from abortion; thought Dr. Moore was inclined to be roticent; that the case was crooked, and "there was a nigger in the fence." Moore made some statements to him about Mrs. Van Zandt's condition, which he did not believe. He went out of town after making his visits to the patient, and while he was gone she died.

A FRIEND OF DECEASED.

A FRIEND OF DECEASED. Miss Florence Chaffee was called. Coroner—Where do you live ? Miss Chaffee (langhing)—Well, in my brother's house; but he doesn't wish his name mentioned, and you'd better leave that out. I live with my mother. We travel most of the time. Witness had known Mrs. Yan Zandt about four months heafare her bandengis deeth i had known

nths before her husband's death ; had kn

Dr. Moore about four weeks. Coroner-State what you know about Mrs. Van Zand's death, Coroner-State what you know about Mrs. Van Zandt's death. In answer to questions witness said that on June Sth Mrs. Van Zandt asked her to help pack a trunk, as she was going out of town. The next day she was taken sick, and asked witness to stay with her all night. She did so, and stayed a week. She had intended to go to Oakland. Her mother was in Santa Craz. When witness wanted to leave, Mrs. Van Zandt said : "If you leave me, I shall die, I know." June 9th was the first time she saw Dr. Moore. Every two or three days he said his patient was getting better. Mrs. Van Zandt was up on the Saturday afternoon of Mrs. Langtry's second week here. Dr. Moore came to the room and "performed an operation, but used no instrument." Witness was present during all the time, and would have seen any instrument that might have been used.

the time, and would have seen any instrument that might have been used. Q.—Did you ever see Dr. Moore take Mrs. Van Zandt on his knees and shake her up? A.—No, sir, I never did. But I have seen him kiss her. [Langhter]. Q.—How did Dr. Moore act? A.—He always acted like a perfect gentleman. After a little further examination the Coroner suggested that the inquest be adjourned until this morning.

Miss Chaffee-Oh, dear! I wish you would get through with me to-night. The Coroner stated that there were new matters needing investigation, and the inquest was con-tinued until 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Van Zandt's Estate.

Mrs. Van Zandt's Estate. William Coggswell has filed a petition for letters of administration in the estate of Mande Emma Van Zandt, who died at the Palace Hotel last Sat-urday. The will is in the handwriting of the de-ceased, and was executed August 12, 1883. In his petition the following property and its value is mentioned: Jewelry, $1,200; musical instruments and furniture, $800; personal effects, $300; cash in hands of manager of hotel, $80.

A SPECIAL BOARD MEETING.

A SPECIAL BOARD MEETING. Last night the Board of Education held a spe-cial meeting. President Hastings in the chair, Bowie, Brand, Cleveland, Platt, Danielwitz, Travers, Conklin and Melcher also present. Danielwitz introduced a resolution of thanks to the Board of Supervisors, in behalf of the public school teachers, for making the extra allowance with which to pay the balance of their June salarice.

with which to pay the balance of their June salaries. Cleveland opposed the resolution. He "had not received a dollar of the money." The resolution was laid over. The remaining 42½ per cent. of June salary de-mands was ordered paid. The recommendations of the Classification Com-mittee, that the two junior classes of the Girls' High School, now in the Powell-street branch, be transferred to the main school, on Bush and Hyde streets ; that Principal Swett be anthorized to transfer two classes to the Hastings echool ; that the commercial class of the Boys' High School be transferred to the Powell-street building, and that the Committee on School Honses and Sites make the necessary fittings for the accommodation thus transferred, were adopted. Adjourned. Adjourned.

Adjourned. A Desperate Encounter. Thomas Rollette, a teamster in the employ of Morris, of the firm of Muller & Morris, ship-handlers, at 9:45 Wedneeday night, on Pacific street, near Taylor, with a slung shot and a knife. Just previous to the assault, Morris met his wife at Rollette hiding in a doorway and she coming up to Morris. He and she have been separated for and Hellette hiding in a doorway and she coming up to Morris. He and she have been separated Rol-lette and in a few minutes they returned together and Rollette made a demand on Morris for his watch. The latter replied that he intended to keep it as evidence of his wife's infidelity to him, whereupon Hollette was arrested by Officer P. H. Murphy and charged with an assault with a deadly weapon.

Two Dromies Have a Fight. A pistol shot was fired at the corner of Spring and Summer streets shortly after 9 o'clock last night, and Detective Bohen and Officer Hartley rushed to catch the murderer. Instead, they found "Jim" Toland and Henry Seybrien engaged in trying to knock each other out. At their feet lay a revolver. When questioned they did not know who fired the shot, or whom the weapon belonged to ; they did not even know what they were fighting for. Any-way they were arrested and charged with battery, for which they gave bail.

A Mystery Cleared Up. The mystery connected with the death of Joseph Wagner, the person who died on the 25th of last month at 1906 Larkin street under circumstances which left the Morgue authorities in doubt as to whether he took his life or died a natural death while contemplating suicide, has been cleared up. Wenzell, the chemist yesterday, reported that he found the presence of morphia in Wagner's stom-ach, which he has been analyzing since the death.

THE BIJOU BURLESQUE SEASON.

Beginning of the Seat Selling.

The sale of seats for the first performance of "Orpheus and Eurydice" commenced at the Bald-win Theatre yesterday morning at nine o'clock. Although the sale is very large, excellent seats are still obtainable at the box office for any night of the week,

The Grand Jury during its session of Wednes-The Grand Jury during its session of Wednes-day night found an indictment for perjury against John Ivers, already convicted for his assault on T. W. Shepherd, and one against Patrick Killa-les, charging him with incest in living with his niece, Sarah Monaghan, as man and wife. Yester-day afternoon Killelee, who was out on bail, was arrested and his bail fixed at $5,000. John Wil-kins, the colored porter of the Sheriff's office, against the editor of the Elevator, who classified him as a colored dude and ward striker and pot-house politician, all of which has operated against him in the circles in which he moves. An adjourn-ment was then had until next Monday, when the against body will commence a thorough investiga-tion of the affairs of the School Board.
