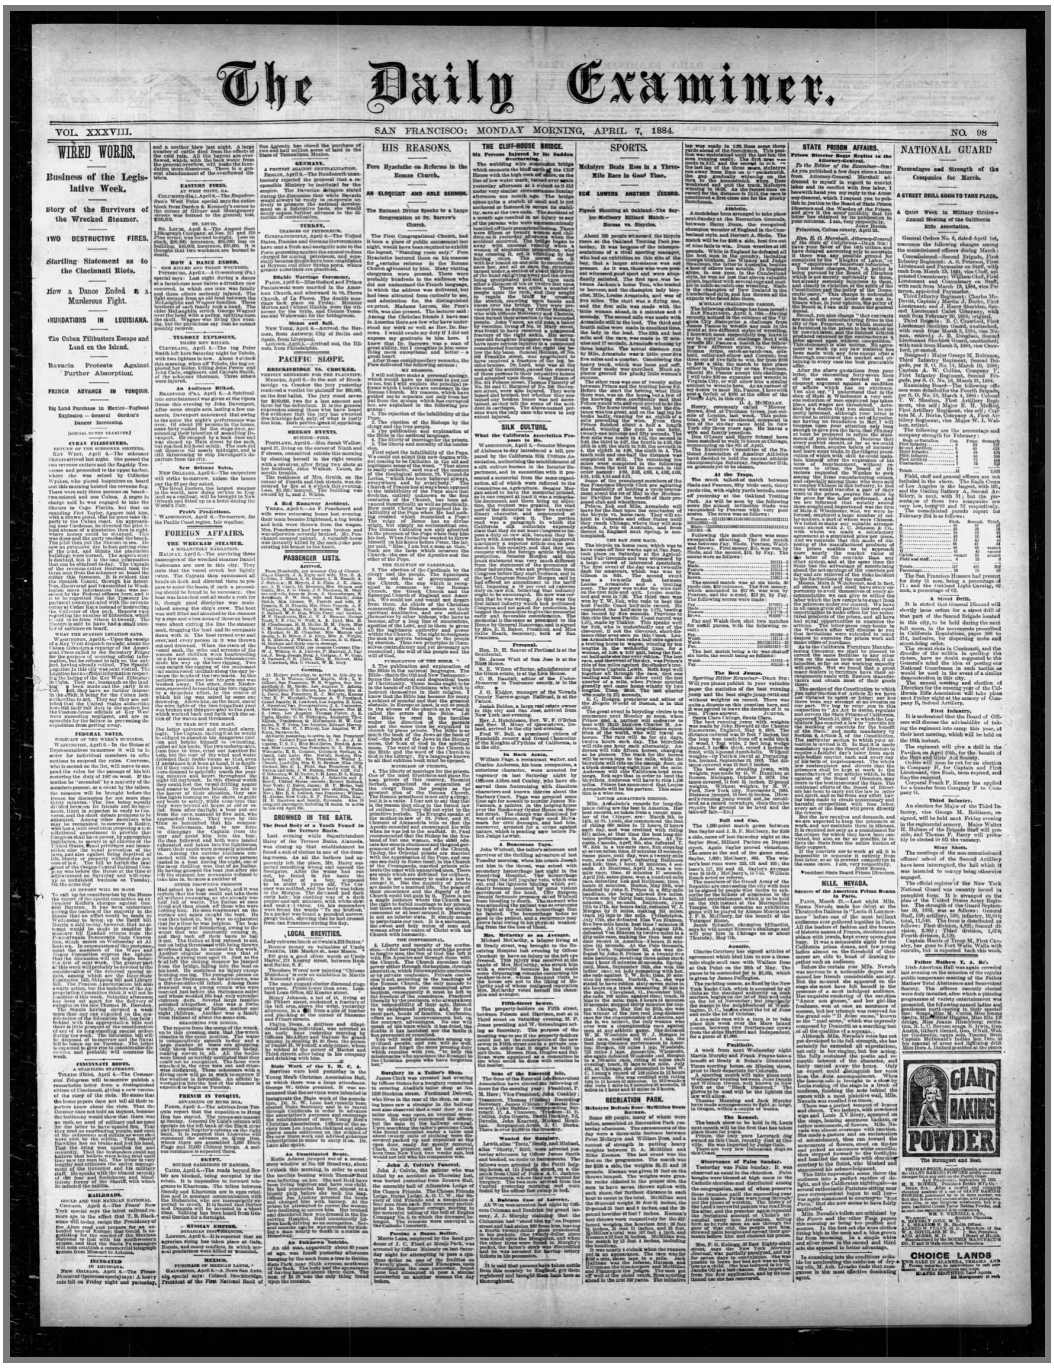
Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/457417670

Downloaded on Apr 14, 2020



The Daily Examiner.

VOL. XXXVIII. SAN FRANCISCO: MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1884. NO. 98

WIRED WORDS.

Business of the Legislative Week.

Story of the Survivors of the Wrecked Steamer.

TWO DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.

Startling Statement as to the Cincinnati Riots.

How a Dance Ended in a Murderous Fight.

COMPLICATIONS IN LOUISIANA.

The Cuban Filibusters Escape and Land on the Island.

Bavaria Protests Against Further Absorption.

FRENCH ADVANCE IN TONQUIN.

Big Land Purchase in Mexico—Railroad Explosion—General Gordon's Danger Increasing.

[SPECIAL TO THE EXAMINER.]

CUBAN FILIBUSTERS.

KEY WEST, April 6.—The steamer Key West, April 6.—The steamer Governor Centre left last night. She passed the two revenue cutters and the flagship Tecumseh and proceeded to the upper harbor, where she remained for a short time, and then steamed out and down. A signal to charge coal to was engaged to take the Shubrick to Cape Florida, but that on rounding Fort Taylor, Agassiz said him, and the Governor Centre proceeded on her way to the Cuban coast. On approaching the Cuban coast, the Governor Centre hoisted the Cuban flag, and the salute was then fired and the party reached the beach. The pilot then put the Governor in sea. He then returned to the Governor Centre and the Governor Centre then proceeded