MARDI GRAS SWIMMING AND DIVING CONTEST

At the natatorium the lantern parade attracted much attention and was greatly appreciated. The 50-yard race was won by Lynch, and the 100-yard race by Hannah. Dabadie and Cavill created much laughter by their impersonation of the fish and the Chinaman. In the 50-yard clown race Lynch came out first best, and the 50-yard race by Pemberton, Worthington and Collins, was won by the latter.

There was an amusing broom fight between Dabadie and Worthington and the 50-yard race between Mead and Hagan was a tie.

PLANS UNDER WAY FOR A NEW CLIFF HOUSE.

Structure to be of Low, Ramping Type and Soon Under Way. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9.—The past and the future set face to face out at the ocean beach yesterday.

While the women were playing two streams of water on the still smoldering ruins of Cliff House No. 1, John Tall was laying out the plans for Cliff House No. 2, a dead of Beeholder, and were Cliff House No. 4 his successor in office, there might be a chance for some remark about smoothly haste. But buildings are property and time is money, and San Franciscans are getting into the habit of doing things in a hurry.

And so it was that John Tall was talking of Ionic columns and apertures verandas, the white those who only came to see were voting a feeble protest in phrases such as "Poor old Cliff" and "It was scarcely realize it."

GRACE LEE'S SOCIAL CHAT

Mystery makes exciting romance; solving it makes dull history.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald's Golden Wedding.

Golden weddings are noteworthy. Fifty years of wedded bliss falls to the lot of but few married couples. It was to honor Mr. and Mrs. George Archibald, who were wedded in Mansfield, Nova Scotia, September 8th, 1857, that relatives and friends to the number of nearly one hundred, gathered at the Archibald home, one mile north of Soquel, last Saturday.

The interior of the beautifully located dwelling was lavishly and tastefully decorated with ferns, berries, pepper wood, sweet peas, dahlias and carnations. The several rooms were early in the afternoon thronged with the many guests, who tied with each other in doing homage to the bride and groom, upon whose shoulders lightly rest the seventy-odd years of their happy earthly pilgrimage. Deeply popular with all their acquaintances are these worthy people who for the last fifteen years or more have resided on their Soquel farm.

A short musical program was rendered by Mrs. Pearce and Bayne Archibald. J. W. Spear gave an entertaining recitation. Elaborate refreshments were served and notes of joy filled the entire household.

All of the children and grandchildren of the aged couple were present. The list includes Mrs. Hattie Archibald and daughter Alice, of Fresno; Hedley Archibald and wife, and two sons, Chester and Roy, of Campbell; Lambert Archibald and wife and son Lewis, of Fresno; Bayne Archibald and wife and two children, Ruth and Kenneth, of Soquel; and Parker Archibald of Soquel.

Two guests of the first wedding, Mrs. Ann McKen of Fresno, sister of the bride, and C. B. Archibald, brother of the groom, were present to add their felicitations.

THE NEW BILL AT THE SWAIN THEATRE

Holds the interest of the Audience and Furnishes Plenty of Laughs. A good home created the Swain comedy last night when they opened their new bill for the week, "Pile 'em High."

The play, a rural comedy-drama, is in four acts, and had a straggle through out which appeals to the heart as well as keeping one in good humor. Walter Frederick, as Jim Barburn, the sheriff, was splendid. The part gave him a chance to show that he is equal to parts calling for more getting than he has been seen in before. Cora King Swain as Elizabeth and William De Vaul as Dave, took care of the comedy parts in fine style; their makeup and actions were sure cues for the show.

The other members of the company acquitted themselves with great credit and the specialties were very good.

In the second act of this play the scene is that of a blacksmith shop, where a tire is heated in the forge, welded and put on the wheel. The other acts had special scenery.

This pretty little play is sure to please and draw good houses.

There are a great many people who have slight attacks of indigestion and dyspepsia every day. They feel full and out of the humor, simply because the stomach is supposed to do. It can't digest the food right. The stomach should be kept in the work every stomach can do. Kodol for Indigestion and Dyspepsia, a combination of natural digestants and digestive acids, digests the food and gives strength and health to the system. Sold by J. G. Tanner and the Model Drug Store.

Watsonville Farmers Sign Up. A STRONG EDITORIAL POLICY. This strong statement of policy is made by a little publication at Greenwater, California. "If you don't like this publication don't read it. If you do read it, remember these facts: What it says is true; what it thinks is honest; it will call a bar a bar, a thief a thief, or an ass an ass, as is justified, and if you don't like it you may kick or be damned. Its editors are its owners and will do as they see fit with their own, restricting themselves only insofar as they are restricted by the demand for the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and their wish to give the devil his due." HEALTH IN THE CANAL ZONE. The MIA wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our workmen to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are enticed however by the temptations of money and the luring promises of those who have used Electric Bitters, when they see safe from malaria in cases where other medicines would have failed to give the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and their wish to give the devil his due." CURE OLD SORES. Watsonville, Cal., May 5, 1907: Mother's Son Liniment Co., You know Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be incurable. The sore was stubborn and would not get to treatment until I tried your Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Anna J. Cannon, also writes that it is a cure. Please send her a 25c bottle. Put this in J. G. Tanner and the Model Drug Store. Subscribe for the "Sentinel"
