

THE SAN FRANCISCO CALL, THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1901.

GOVERNOR NASH IS ENTERTAINED AT A BANQUET AND VISITING CONGRESSMEN ARE SHOWN SIGHTS OF THE CITY AND VICINITY

GOVERNOR NASH of Ohio was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the Union League Club in the evening, where he met a brilliant assemblage, including Governor Geer of Oregon, Governor Gage of California, Major General Shafter and others. During the day the visiting Congressmen were taken for a drive through the park and Presidio Reservation, luncheon at the Cliff House.

TO-DAY'S WEATHER

SAN FRANCISCO'S distinguished guests from the national capital and from Ohio and other States may expect more agreeable weather than the fogs and winds of the past few days have permitted them to enjoy. The Weather Bureau furnishes a forecast that brings hope of sunny days of bright weather. The forecast for to-day is as follows: "San Francisco and vicinity—Fair; fresh westerly wind."
"ALEXANDER MCDIE,
"Local Forecast Official."

Congressmen Are Driven Through Golden Gate Park and the Presidio Reservation and Take Luncheon at the Cliff House

THE visiting Congressmen and their wives were afforded an excellent opportunity yesterday of viewing the beautiful scenery in Golden Gate Park, the Presidio Reservation and the Golden Gate Bridge. The party consisted of fifty ladies and gentlemen and filled comfortably the twelve coaches. A start was made from the Pension House shortly after a o'clock and the route taken was to Golden Gate avenue, along the shore to the Presidio Reservation, thence to the park.

Delighted With Park's Beauty

The visitors were enraptured and spoke freely of the wonderful sight. Their remarks were expressed by one of the party who said: "I have never seen a park so beautiful as this. It is most wonderful."

First Dinner of the Pacific

At the Cliff House the visitors were entertained by a most excellent dinner. The food was superb and the service was of the highest order. The party was most enjoyable and the day was spent in a most agreeable manner.

DAY'S SIGHT-SEEING OF CONGRESSMEN AND RECEPTION TO GOV. NASH.

THE Union League Club received a number of distinguished visitors, including Governor Geer of Oregon, Governor Gage of California, Major General Shafter and others. During the day the visiting Congressmen were taken for a drive through the park and Presidio Reservation, luncheon at the Cliff House.

Riches of California

California is a rich and fertile land, and the richness of her soil is well known to all who have visited her. The richness of her soil is well known to all who have visited her.

Welcomes the Guests

The guests were most cordially welcomed by the Union League Club. The party was most enjoyable and the day was spent in a most agreeable manner.

Advances to Its Significance

The advances to its significance are well known to all who have visited her. The richness of her soil is well known to all who have visited her.

Visiting Ohioans Are Taken Through the Oriental Quarter by Police Officers Specially Detailed by Chief of Police Sullivan

Several parties among the visiting Ohioans inspected Chinatown last night under the guidance of Chief Sullivan. At 8 o'clock James J. Sullivan, Chief of Police, was accompanied by a party of Ohioans to Chinatown.

ADVISE AMENDMENT

Majority of PLATT AMENDMENT is in favor of the amendment. The committee on resolutions, Henry Tamm, Villanova and Quasada, are in favor of the amendment.

VALLEJO EXPECTS FULL DELEGATION

Congressmen Acknowledge Receipt of Invitations to Be Her Guests.

VALLEJO, May 15.—The rooms at the magnificent hotel building at Vallejo were filled with delegates to the convention.