GERMAN HUSBANDMEN DELIGHTED WITH THE CITY

BOTH MAY HAVE BEEN POISONED

Two Young Daughters of John Baker Jr. Suspected of Intestinal Trouble.

Two children of John Baker Jr., master of the Union Oil Company of California, have died within a few days of each other under circumstances which indicate a common cause.

THE death of John Baker Jr. on May 18, 1903, was a surprise to his friends. He had been in good health for some time.

His two young daughters, who were both in the city at the time of his death, were also found to be suffering from intestinal trouble.

It is believed that the girls were poisoned by their father, who was known to be a man of a violent temper.

The case is being investigated by the police, and it is expected that the truth will be revealed in a few days.

It is a tragedy that has shocked the community, and it is hoped that the authorities will bring the guilty party to justice.

The case is being handled with the utmost discretion, and it is expected that the public interest will be satisfied.

AGED MAN AND BABY CANNOT FIND HOME

Arrive From Cheyenne With Half an Address and Spend Night in the City Prison.

With a piece of paper on which was written "Mrs. Fred J. O'Brien, 1117 Van Ness street, San Francisco," arrived in the city tonight a man and a baby.

The man, who was about 60 years of age, and the baby, who was about 18 months old, were found by the police in the city prison.

It is believed that the man and the baby were brought to the city from Cheyenne, Wyoming.

The man said that he was with the baby in Cheyenne, and that he was brought to the city by a man who had offered him a ride.

It is expected that the man and the baby will be taken care of by the city authorities.
