

9 SATURDAY THE EXAMINER, SAN FRANCISCO, MARCH 7, 1903. SATURDAY

HANDKERCHIEF MAY LEAD TO AN ARREST

Finding of What is Considered an Important Clue in the Assassination of Edwin T. Burdick of Buffalo.

Police Superintendent Has a Theory That Person Who Committed the Deed Has Been Benefitted by Victim

The person who brings the murder of Edwin T. Burdick to rest. This man was decided to-night, when the mystery of the fatal crime was still an enigma.

Superintendent of Police Hall, who is Chief of Detectives Chicago, has been in Buffalo, N. Y., to see the handkerchief which was found in the room of the victim.

It is a plain fact that the handkerchief was found in the room of the victim, and it is a plain fact that the handkerchief was found in the room of the victim.

It is a plain fact that the handkerchief was found in the room of the victim, and it is a plain fact that the handkerchief was found in the room of the victim.

It is a plain fact that the handkerchief was found in the room of the victim, and it is a plain fact that the handkerchief was found in the room of the victim.

HUSBAND DEFENDS HIS ACCUSED WIFE

MRS. W. P. VEUVE. Charges Made by Spouse of W. P. Veuve of San Jose Fail to Shake Constancy of Max Jord.

SAN JOSE, March 4.—The tension of complaint. The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month.

The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month. The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month.

The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month. The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month.

The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month. The original divorce suit was filed in the Superior Court of San Jose, Cal., on the 10th of last month.

NEVADA STATESMEN AT MR. HEARST'S BANQUET

Leading Men of Sagebrush State Enjoy Hospitality Given in Acknowledgment of Legislative Vote of Thanks.

Mr. Hearst's Name Frequently Mentioned as a Presidential Possibility and Received With Utmost Enthusiasm.

Representatives to the National Convention held here last evening was a brilliant event in every particular.

The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one.

The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one. The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one.

The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one. The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one.

The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one. The banquet was given in the grand ballroom of the Hotel McLaughlin, and it was a most successful one.

JUDGE GROSSCUP ADMITS RADICAL VIEWS OF TRUSTS

Judge Grosscup.

Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts.

Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts. Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts.

Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts. Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts.

Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts. Judge Grosscup, who is a member of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, has admitted that he holds radical views on trusts.

PLANS FOR 15,000-TON BATTLESHIPS READY

Contracts for Vermont, Kansas and Massachusetts Navy Ships to be Ready.

The contracts for the construction of three 15,000-ton battleships for the United States Navy are now ready for signature.

ITALIAN IS BEATEN AND ROBBED ON STREET

White Walking on Street Struck by Highwayman, Who Ho Does Not See, and Relieved of Valuables.

A white man walking on the street in San Francisco was struck by a highwayman who relieved him of his valuables.

GRAND VIZIER SAYS REFORMS WILL COME

Explains How Turkish Government is Doing All Things Asked to Help Conditions in Macedonia.

The Grand Vizier of the Turkish Government has stated that reforms will be implemented in Macedonia.

WILKESHAFT Island of Crows, March 6.—The relationship which served here today from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, served only one-third of her usual capacity.

The ship Wilkeshaft, which is a member of the United States Coast Guard, has been reported to have a low capacity.

The ship Wilkeshaft, which is a member of the United States Coast Guard, has been reported to have a low capacity. The ship Wilkeshaft, which is a member of the United States Coast Guard, has been reported to have a low capacity.

MILLIONAIRE DIES FROM RAZOR SCRATCH

Small Wound on Neck Leads to Complications of Stomach and Brain.

FIREMAN HAS LEG BROKEN

Thomas P. A. Smith, a fireman, has broken his leg while working on a fire.

MAKING IT DRIER FOR PROHIBITION KANSAS.

Whiskey Dealers Must Prepay Freight and Guaranty to Return Freight.

WILKESHAFT Island of Crows, March 6.—The relationship which served here today from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, served only one-third of her usual capacity.

The ship Wilkeshaft, which is a member of the United States Coast Guard, has been reported to have a low capacity. The ship Wilkeshaft, which is a member of the United States Coast Guard, has been reported to have a low capacity.

Advertisement for 'THE PROFESSIONAL' SUNDAY CALL, March 8. Includes text: 'ANOTHER "SARONY" FREE ART SUPPLEMENT With THE SUNDAY CALL' and 'VENEZUELAN OBJECT TO EXPORT DUTIES'.