

THE EXAMINER, SAN FRANCISCO, SATURDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 14, 1899. California Bond, Free with Tomorrow's Examiner

BILLINGSGATE BANNED OVER BANK AFFAIRS

Stormy Meeting in Relation to the Union Savings. JIM REA HAS A SCHEME He Proposes to Tax Each Share of Stock Sixty Dollars.

Several directors of the "Union Savings Bank" were met last night at the residence of the president, Mr. J. M. Rea, to discuss the proposed plan to tax each share of stock sixty dollars.

The plan was met with opposition from several directors, but Mr. Rea insisted that it was necessary for the financial stability of the bank.

Mr. Rea's proposal was to tax each share of stock sixty dollars, which would amount to a total of $1,200,000 for the entire bank.

The meeting was adjourned until next week, with the understanding that Mr. Rea would present a more detailed plan.

It is believed that the plan will be adopted, as Mr. Rea has the support of the majority of the directors.

SCOUTS DEFEAT INSURGENTS AT MOUNTAIN LUPA

Major Cheatham Makes the Attack and Loses Three Men.

Major Cheatham's scouts defeated the insurgents at Mountain Lupa, resulting in the capture of three men.

The scouts were led by Major Cheatham and were well equipped for the terrain. The insurgents were caught off guard.

The victory was a significant one for the scouts, showing their training and discipline. The captured men were taken to the nearest town.

The insurgents were reportedly well-armed and had been active in the region. The scouts' actions have put a temporary halt to their activities.

The scouts are being praised for their bravery and skill. The military command is planning further operations in the area.

The incident has raised concerns about the stability of the region. The military is maintaining a strong presence.

ODD FELLOWS THIRTY THOUSAND STRONG WILL JOIN IN NEXT WEEK'S JUBILEE

The streets of the city will soon be a labyrinth of colors, flags, banners and bunting. The parade is expected to be one of the largest in the city's history.

The Odd Fellows are preparing for a grand jubilee next week. The parade will start at the city hall and end at the main square.

The jubilee will include a variety of activities, including music, dancing, and games. The community is invited to participate.

The Odd Fellows are proud to represent their organization and the city. The jubilee is a chance to show their unity and strength.

The parade is expected to draw a large crowd of spectators. The Odd Fellows are looking forward to a successful event.

The jubilee will be a memorable event for all who attend. The Odd Fellows are grateful for the support of the community.

POHLL PAID A HIGH TRIBUTE TO McDONALD

Organization of the Democratic County Committee.

Preparations for battle. Horace Davis and Irving M. Scott to address Republicans.

Mr. Pohll paid a high tribute to Mr. McDonald during the meeting. He praised McDonald's leadership and dedication to the party.

The Democratic County Committee is organizing for the upcoming election. They are focusing on mobilizing voters and securing the ballot box.

Mr. Davis and Mr. Scott will address the Republicans at a public meeting. They are expected to deliver strong speeches.

The Republicans are preparing for a tough fight. They are confident that they will win the election.

The election is expected to be a close one. The voters will have a choice between the two major parties.

FIVE MILLIONS NOT ENOUGH FOR CROCKER

Huntington Would Buy His Pacific Improvement Stock.

Big Deal Is Now Off. Southern Pacific Directors Will Reorganize in December.

Mr. Crocker is demanding five million dollars for his stock. Mr. Huntington is willing to buy it, but the price is too high.

The deal is now off. The Southern Pacific directors are planning to reorganize the company in December.

The reorganization is expected to result in a new management team. The company's future is uncertain.

The stock market is reacting to the news. The price of the stock has fallen significantly.

The company's financial situation is dire. The directors are looking for ways to raise money.

ALASKA PROTESTS AGAINST ANY CESSION

Opposition to the Proposed Sale of Territory.

Protesters are demanding that the territory be kept as a state. They are concerned about the loss of their rights.

The federal government is planning to sell the territory. The protesters are holding rallies and demonstrations.

The protesters are calling for a referendum. They want the people to decide the fate of the territory.

IN HONOR OF A DEAD COMRADE

Will be a Snow Ball on Tuesday Night, October 10th, 1899.

The snow ball is being held to honor a comrade who died in the struggle. It is a chance for comrades to meet and talk.

The snow ball will be held at the city hall. It is expected to be a large gathering.

The snow ball is a tradition of the party. It is a way to show solidarity and support.

ASSOCIATION A TRUST?

Legal Question Raised by the Proposed Union.

The proposed union is being challenged on the grounds that it is a trust. The court is expected to rule on the matter.

The union is a new organization. It is intended to represent the workers. The court's decision will have a significant impact.

The union is fighting the case. They believe that the union is a legitimate organization.

THE CLIFF HOUSE WAFFLE FEUD IN COURT

Legal Dispute Over the Wafler's Rights.

The wafler is a trademark of the Cliff House. The court is deciding who has the right to use it.

The wafler is a popular food item. It is a symbol of the Cliff House. The court's decision will affect the business.

The wafler is a trademark of the Cliff House. The court is deciding who has the right to use it.

Advertisement for 'The Cliff House Waffle Feud in Court' featuring a cartoon illustration of a man and a woman, and text describing the legal dispute over the wafler trademark.

Advertisement for 'Struck Oil' in Contra Costa County, featuring text about oil drilling and a 'Going Up!' slogan, along with a small illustration of a man.