

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The Committee on Health and Police Hold a Meeting.

NEW BOOKS FOR THE RECORDER.

Special Meeting of the Board of Health-Personal Property Tax Collections-New City Hall Commission.

The taxes on personal property are being paid rapidly and the large force of clerks in Tax Collector Kreling's office are kept constantly busy from 9 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night.

HEALTH AND POLICE.

A Move to Change the Location of the City Receiving Hospital.

The Health and Police Committee of the Board of Supervisors held a meeting yesterday morning, all the members being present.

The petition of the California Fertilizing Company for the lease for twenty years of "Market Place," on Channel street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, was refused.

The complaint of property-owners requesting the abatement of a nuisance in the shape of smoke and soot from the chimney of the Cutting Canning Factory, on Harrison street, near Seventh, was referred to the Health Committee to investigate.

Fidelity Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, applied for permission to give a domino party, and the San Francisco Social Club for permission to give a masquerade ball.

Both petitions were granted, much to the disappointment of Supervisor Marton, who entered a most earnest protest against granting permits for Saturday night masquerades.

G. Alstead applied for redress on account of an alleged improper action on the part of a Deputy Pound-Master in loosening the fastenings of his horse and afterwards impounding it.

The Chairman of the committee and with Dr. Pescia were appointed a special committee to ascertain what arrangements, if any, could be made for the transfer of the City Receiving Hospital from its present quarters in the City Prison to a more desirable location.

The rooms in the Washington-street wing of the old City Hall were mentioned as possibly suitable for the purpose, the recommendation that this action be taken having been recommended by the Board of Health.

Another recommendation that all bills for drugs supplied the Alms-house, Industrial School, City Receiving Hospital, House of Correction and County Jail be examined by the druggist of the City and County Hospital was voted down by the committee.

Dr. Pescia, remarking that the Board of Supervisors was the best examiner of bills, and that the pharmacists of the institutions named were fully competent to judge of their accuracy.

The petition of a number of property owners at the Potrero, asking that scavengers be allowed to fill in the mud flats in that section of the city by dumping their carts therein was not allowed.

THE BOARD OF HEALTH.

A Discussion on Appropriations and Public Vaccination.

The Board of Health held a special meeting yesterday afternoon, the full Board being present and Mayor Pond in the chair.

The Mayor stated that the object of the meeting was to consider the method of procuring a new supply of vaccine quills, and also to consider means of providing for the increased demand, so that the monthly appropriations will not again be overdrawn.

Health Officer Meares said he believed the present rate of applicants for vaccination would continue until the 8th of August, when the public schools would open for the autumn term.

At present the average number of applicants at the office of the Board of Health was in excess of 100 per day.

A discussion then ensued upon the urgent necessity of procuring more vaccine quills. All the members were in favor of purchasing an additional quantity at once, but the fact of the monthly appropriations being already overdrawn, in consequence of the extra demands upon the Health Office during the past two months, made the situation somewhat embarrassing.

In response to a query from Mayor Pond, the Secretary stated that the annual appropriation of $5,000 only allowed for the expenditure of $416 66, whereas the disbursements for July thus far were $639 05, making a deficiency of $222 39.

Drs. McCarthy and Perry were appointed a special committee to wait upon the Board of Supervisors and ask them to make an appropriation to cover the deficiency for the present month, and also to provide an additional appropriation of $400 to provide for the extra expenses of the coming month.

Dr. Perry stated that the allowance of $5,000 per annum was far too small for the present, and less than preceding years. In 1883 it was $10,000, in 1884 $7,000, in 1885 $7,000, and in 1886 and 1887 but $5,000.

"The present time," said Dr. Perry, "is an emergency where we require about $750 per month."

Dr. Meares reported that he had visited the Pest House and the eight patients there were all doing well. He believed the disease stamped out.

Dr. Perry thought otherwise, and gave statistics of the slow growth of the disease, covering three years, in New York City. It was on this account he thought vigilance should not be relaxed.

It was suggested that a communication be sent to the Board of Education, asking them to pass a rule requiring every child to present a certificate signed by a physician to the effect that they have had a good, effective vaccination within seven years.

Petitions and Protests.

Among the petitions and protests filed with the Board of Supervisors yesterday were the following:

J. Lakin, asking that he be allowed to add a wooden building to his hotel on Jackson street for the purpose of a baggage room.

and $12,485 transferred from other funds, making a total of $172,917. This amount, however, will be absorbed by the bills passed by the Board of Supervisors at their last meeting.

PUBLIC PRINTING.

A Contract Awarded, and a Number of Bids Rejected.

The printing committee of the Board of Supervisors met yesterday afternoon. Present, Joost (Chairman), Boyd and Heyer.

The committee opened bids for printing, ruling and binding twenty five mortgage and thirty deed books and twelve blotters for use in the Recorder's office.

Bids were as follows: J. B. McIntire, $223 80; J. B. Dabrock, $263 70; Payot, Upham & Co., $278 30; and Athoff & Bahls, $290 50.

The contract was awarded to J. B. McIntire as the lowest bidder.

The various bids received for lithographic maps for the Municipal Reports were rejected, and the Secretary was ordered to advertise for new bids, according to new specifications to be prepared by the Committee.

CITY HALL COMMISSIONERS.

The Board of New City Hall Commissioners held a meeting yesterday and passed the July salary demands.

THE SCHOONER "PARALLEL."

Ruling in the Action for Damages Brought Against the Owners.

In Department 2 of the Superior Court, yesterday, Judge Sullivan overruled the demurrer to the answer in the case of R. C. Pearson vs. S. B. Peterson et al.

The complaint recites at length the various facts connected with the loading of the schooner Parallel with dynamite at one of the city wharves and the wreck of the vessel and subsequent explosion on the beach below the Cliff House.

Plaintiff claims that his property at the Cliff was damaged to the extent of $5,000, and he brought suit to recover the amount from the owners of the vessel.

In their answer the defendants deny that the explosion was due to negligence on their part, and among other defenses they plead what is known as the Limit of Liability Act of 1851.

To these matters thus set up as a defense, plaintiff demurred, on the ground that they constitute no defense in law to the matters set forth in the complaint.

In his decision, Judge Sullivan states that the statute relied on as exempting the owners from any liability was passed March 3, 1851, and then proceeds to define the liability prior to the passage of this Act, as also the origin of the Act.

Reference was made to decisions by the United States Supreme Court construing the statute.

He said that counsel for plaintiff virtually concedes that their conclusions as to the absence of the owner's liability for injuries apply where the injury is fully inflicted on sea.

But he questions the application to a case where, as in the present one, the property injured is on land and where, of course, the consumption of the injury is on land.

"As I understand the matter," said the Court, "it is that the defendant is not intended to cover matters peculiarly of maritime or admiralty jurisdiction, and is not by its terms or spirit framed to cover the assertion of a common law right of action for a tort committed on shore."

"On the authority of the cases cited, I am of the opinion," said the Court, "that the matters in dispute in this case are not maritime matters, and that the demurrer to the answer should be overruled."

AFLOAT AND ASHORE.

Ships Waiting for Crews-A Sailor Drowned-Other Items.

A new landing is to be built at Bixby's Landing, fifteen miles north of Point Pinos.

The Captain of the schooner Del Norte, which passed within 200 yards of the new lighthouse building at Point St. George, reports that the foundation is up several feet.

The Chilean bark Estrella was released from quarantine late Thursday evening.

The ship Glory of the Seas is in port. Although her registered tonnage is 2,000 tons, she had a cargo of 3,625 tons of coal and drew twenty-seven feet of water.

The tonnage market is remarkably firm, quotations being 30 shillings for iron and 27 shillings 6 pence per ton for wooden ships to Cork for orders.

It is thought that these figures will not advance materially. At present there is a small margin left to owners of deep water ships after paying the running expenses.

Coming this way from Liverpool are 18 to 20 shillings, from Cardiff 20 shillings, and from Australia 15 shillings. About 12,000 tons are due, and nearly 15,000 tons on the coast disengaged, besides the 58,702 tons lying idle in this port.

The British bark Albion is unloading cement at Mission No. 2. She is the center of attraction at once, but the fact of the cargo who express astonishment at her lengthy passage of 213 days.

There are forty-seven British vessels in the harbor at present. Of these twenty are under charter and ten are in the stream waiting for men. Those detained for want of sailors are the Glenogier, Denick, Turkish Isles, Crown of Denmark, Despatch, Casparyard, Soudan, Tansania and Turkistan.

THE DIVORCE RECORD.

Impriisoned for Non-Payment of Alimony-Divorces Granted.

Judge Levy has granted Alice Murray a divorce from John F. Murray, on the ground of cruelty, and the custody of the minor child has been awarded to the mother.

On the 26th of last April Judge Levy ordered the defendant in the case of Damiana Espinosa vs. J. Espinosa to pay alimony to the plaintiff, and he failed to do so, except the sum of $10. Yesterday the Court ordered him imprisoned in the County Jail until he complies with the order.

A DOUBTFUL STORY.

Disbelief in the Alleged Suicide Boat Sailed.

An investigation made yesterday of the report that a man had deliberately jumped overboard from the deck of the steamer San Rafael on Wednesday afternoon, and been drowned in the bay, revealed sufficient facts to warrant the conclusion that the occurrence never took place, and that the alleged attempt at suicide only existed in the disordered imagination of several parties on the boat.

Among the persons who claimed to have seen the desperate individual take his fatal leap were a "space" reporter named Fred Essex, and an alleged English artist and professional poser as an Earl or Lord named Smith.

The general supposition is that these two individuals are at the bottom of the whole affair, which they consider a hoax, and that the picknickers, Kelly, Warren and others, are innocent of any knowledge of the affair.

The liquor which the latter had, as it is claimed, may have had some effect in dulling their recollection of occurrences, and Mr. Warren may have become madly excited over the cry of "man overboard."

Lord Smith it seems was the last man who claimed to have seen the alleged suicide leap from the boat. No alarm was given at the time, and the fact that the noble English artist possesses a very large fortune, and the appearance of the alleged deceased, beyond his shabby lack of a collar, lends a murchausen color to the story quite in keeping with the relator's reputation for truth and veracity.

As both Smith and Essex were very much discomposed at the idea of the collarless suicide being taken for a fact, and that they had been deceived by officers until the break of their heated imaginations had had ample time to drown, their version of the affair requires a ton of salt to render it even slightly palatable.

After two days' investigation the most charitable conclusion is reached, and that the story is the yarn of a pair of half tipsy practical jokesters, who consider unvarnished lying a witty diversion.

ROBBED HIS FRIEND.

William Kentrowich, a German Pole, languishes in a cell at the City Prison, and has a charge of grand larceny recorded against him. During his passage on the steamer Starbuck, from Panama to this city, he formed the acquaintance of two Portuguese named A. Alvis and H. Reese. The three men soon became on very intimate terms, and upon arrival in this city, about ten days ago, they took up their quarters at the Commercial Hotel.

When Alvis retired last Sunday night he placed his full wallet in his inside vest pocket, and placed the vest under his pillow. He was surprised upon awaking in the morning to see his vest lying across a chair in the middle of the room. He hastily examined his pocket-book and discovered that $900 in greenbacks and $90 in gold had been stolen. Reese had been a close friend of his for many years, and he therefore could not suspect him. Kentrowich, he concluded must be the guilty person. He reported the theft to the Chief of Police, and Detective Hogan was detailed to make an investigation.

The officer shadowed Kentrowich and found that he was spending money very lavishly. He had been associating with the women and making them valuable presents. His conduct was very suspicious, and Hogan accordingly locked him up last night on a charge of grand larceny. When arrested, Kentrowich had only $109 in his possession.

THE PURE WINE LAW.

The Breach Widening Between the Vine-growers and Merchants.

Ever since the difference of opinion in regard to the Pure Wine law created a division in the Viticultural Commission some time ago, it is stated considerable harsh feelings have been engendered. Several of the principal vine-merchants who are opposed to the Pure Wine law have accused Chief Viticultural Officer Wheeler of taking sides in the test case of the People against Kohler.

At present the breach between growers and dealers is apparently widening, inasmuch as the dealers are assured that the Grape-growers' Association is foremost in urging the observance of the law.

In a letter to Arpad Haraszty Chief Viticultural Officer Wheeler explains the course of the Commission. In the course of the letter he says:

Your instructions to the Secretary of this Board, explaining the position the Board occupies in regard to the employment of assistant counsel in the test case of the Pure Wine law, to be argued on the 1st of August, in the case of People vs. Kohler, are fully appreciated. The invitation extended to the counsel was sent at the solicitation of several leading vine-growers, particularly by members of the Pure Wine Association, who are opposed to the law.

If the Commission has seemed to the public regrettable, it is entirely my misapprehension, and I shall take the earliest possible opportunity to disabuse the public mind of such an impression.

GRAND ARMY TOURISTS.

Time Limits and Other Information for the Western States Passenger Association.

The Western States Passenger Association, governing rates in the Missouri River territory, have fixed the limit of issuing tickets for the Missouri River points so that the tickets are sold "from and including September 24th to and including September 27th going, coupons to be limited until September 28th, with limit of ten days from date of sale for returning passage; provided, an arrangement shall be made to enable the Chairman of Transportation, G. A. R. (on certificate signed by himself), to procure for G. A. R. members through the general agents of terminal lines in St. Louis an extension of time for such members as desire to take extended trips either west or south of St. Louis, the extreme limit of such extension not to exceed October 31st, such extension to be made within the limits of the ticket.

It will be seen that those going to the encampment must be in St. Louis by the 28th of September, and such tickets must be sold in California within the time fixed by that association, making allowance only for the difference in distance to the Missouri River, so that passengers may receive their tickets between the 24th and 28th of September, inclusive.

Burglary, Larceny and Vagrancy.

George Murray was arrested by Officer Horigan yesterday afternoon and locked up at the Southern Station on charges of petty larceny and vagrancy. Last night Horigan learned that Murray had been implicated in the robbery of a Davies' tailor shop, on Third street, near Harrison, about two weeks ago, and placed an additional charge of burglary against him.

A Murderous Opium Fiend.

Policemen Parrott and Kennedy raided an opium place on Pacific street last night, and arrested three Chinese. Ah Sin, the proprietor of the place, drew a knife and made an assault on the officers. The latter, in an additional case of an assault with a deadly weapon to be recorded against him.

A BUILDING PICNIC.

Alameda's New Turn Verein Hall to Be Built in a Day.

There will be a novel building affair in Alameda to-morrow. A new Turn Verein Society has been organized in that town, but the Society is without a hall, or the means to build one. As the whole community is in favor of the Society having a hall, an unique project was set on foot to furnish it with one.

The Harmonie Society donated a lot, some lumber dealers gave the lumber and a planing-mill planed it free of charge; some hardware dealers gave the nails, locks, etc., and other materials were donated by other parties. A number of carpenters and masons volunteered to do the building work for nothing, and it is intended to put the structure up complete to-morrow.

The occasion will be made a sort of festival. The breweries and restaurants will furnish a bountiful supply of beer and eatables, and a small army of men will make a picnic of erecting the building in a day.

Escaped From Mendocino.

Bismarck Newsinger was lodged at the City Prison last night, en route to Mendocino County, to complete an unexpired sentence. He escaped from the Mendocino County Jail on June 7, 1886, while serving a term for petit larceny, and was not heard of until yesterday, when he was captured at Santa Cruz.
