

TAKE SUSPECTS IN BLACKMAIL
CASE AFTER
'EYE DUEL'

Faces Two Men with Drawn Revolvers on Downey
Road

DEMANDED MONEY, CLAIM
THIS IS MOTHERS' DAY

Forces Them to Drop Guns and Run; Notifies Police Headquarters

Alleged to have attempted to blackmail Phillip Farino, son of a wealthy Italian merchant of Los Angeles, two men giving their names as John Canzone and Joe La Corte, were arrested early today at Downey.

The arrest followed an alleged attack by the two men on young Farino with revolvers. Farino, it was said, put the men to flight.

Farino faced the two men with drawn revolvers on the Downey road last night and by sheer nerve forced them to drop their weapons.

The silent duel took place when it was alleged Canzone and La Corte waylaid Farino and demanded money.
Farino then drew his revolver and faced the men.

Young Farino charges that Can-zone is the leader of a gang of blackmailers. He said he had paid small sums to the men to keep peace but had decided that he would give no more.

When Farino, according to the police, faced Canzone with the revolver Canzone, a pistol in his own hand, glared at the youth for a moment and then, breaking, said:

"Drop your gun and I'll drop mine." Farino paid no attention to the suggestion and Canzone, meeting the youth's unswerving glance, dropped his gun and fled.

'Christmas Fund' for 'Our Boys' Is Asked by Mayor

Appealing to the patriotism of citizens of Los Angeles and Southern California, Mayor Woodman has issued a proclamation urging contributions to a fund to be spent at Christmas for the soldiers. The mayor pointed out that a large number of Los Angeles and California boys will not be at home this Christmas and that it is the duty of every citizen to make Christmas a happy day for the men in uniform.

"I appeal to the citizens of Los Angeles and Southern California to participate in this Christmas movement by contributing unselfishly to a fund that will mean so much to the boys who have left us for the firing line upon the battle front in Europe," he said.

Freight Car Crisis Threatens Coast

The gravest freight car shortage in the history of the southwest today threatened Los Angeles and Southern California, according to railway officials and authorities of the State Council of Defense.

It was stated that 500,000 tons of food products grown in Southern California were today awaiting shipment to the eastern markets and that only a small part of the freight car service needed is available. It also was stated that similar conditions exist in the east, and other parts of the country.

New Hotel Planned, Broadway at Ninth

That a new hotel, designed to be the finest and biggest west of Chicago, will be erected on the northeast corner of Broadway and Ninth street, was announced today.

The stockholders of the Palace hotel, San Francisco, were today said to be financially interested in the enterprise. The site selected is owned by D. A. and M. A. Hamburger and W. H. Clune. It was chosen by Roy Caruthers, manager of the Palace.
It measures 248 feet on Broadway and 160 on Ninth street.

ONE IN EVERY 75 CONVERTED IS CLAIM FOR REVIVAL

Total Attendance at Big Meetings Is 380,000; Collections Amount to $19,580

Evangelist Speaks to Society Women; Factories Visited by Sunday Workers

One person out of every seventy-five attending the Billy Sunday revival to date has "hit the sawdust trail."

The evangelist's "batting average" in his contest against the devil was compiled today on the latest figures announced at the Sunday headquarters.

Three hundred and eighty thousand persons have attended the Sunday meetings. Four thousand seven hundred and eighty have expressed a desire to lead better lives.

The total collection now amounts to $19,583.40. Fifty-five thousand dollars is the estimated cost of the campaign.

Figured according to baseball percentage, Sunday's average of "hits" —conversions—is .026.

Today was "Mother's Day" in the Sunday revival. This afternoon Sunday spoke on the subject "Mother." He will repeat the sermon tonight at the tabernacle.

WEAR WHITE ROSES
The evangelist made the request that those who attend the meetings wear white roses in honor of their mothers.

This morning Sunday was guest of honor at a reception at the home of Mrs. Willetts J. Hoie, 1907 West Sixth street.

At noon George Sunday, son and business manager of the evangelist; Homer Rodeheaver, the song leader, and "Bob" Matthews, Sunday's secretary, were guests at a luncheon of the Optimists' club. Sunday spoke.

Meetings were held at noon by Sunday workers at factories throughout Los Angeles. A large number of business women attended the "luncheon talks" at the First M. E. church.

FACTORY MEETINGS
Mrs. William Asher, one of the Sunday workers, spoke at an overall factory, Twelfth and San Julian streets, this morning. The noon meetings at factories and shops were conducted by A. L. Miller and Dr.
Isaac Ward.

Miss Alice M. Gamlin addressed a meeting of boys and girls at the Newman M. E. church today. Mrs.
Asher was also scheduled to speak at the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Grace Saxe conducted a Bible class for public school teachers in the afternoon at the Temple Baptist church.

Sunday's vocal cords, strained by his continuous speaking and an attack of hay fever, were given special treatment today. It was stated that the evangelist is in no danger of not being able to speak.

"If my voice does fall me," Sunday said, "it will be the first time in twenty-one years that I have been unable to preach. Tell 'em not to worry."

145 HIT TRAIL
A number of patriotic societies numbering fully 1000 will attend tonight's meeting at the tabernacle.

One hundred and forty-five men and women "hit the trail" last night.
A number of soldiers and sailors were among the converts.

A delegation of more than 200 employees of The Evening Herald attended the services last evening. It was the first newspaper delegation to attend the revival. There were other delegations from the customs house, Home Savings bank, Los Angeles Ice and Cold Storage company, Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, Wells-Fargo Express, Renshaw-Sutton and the Rotary club.

Following are excerpts from last night's sermon:
"Sin is graded by light. The more light the greater your guilt. I'd rather be a heathen in Japan or in Africa, worshipping idols of wood or stone, than a man in Los Angeles today and not be of God.

I'd like to have lived in the days of the old prophets. Those old fellows weren't trimmers like a bunch of preachers I know today. If he was like those of today he would have said: "Just keep it under cover, We'll keep it as quiet as we can."

L. A. FASHION SHOW ECLIPSES RECORD NEW STYLES ARE AN ALLURING DELIGHT

GOWNS, WRAPS, DAINTY LINGERIE, MILLINERY AND FURS ARE WORKS OF ART

Transforming the city streets into veritable lanes of feminine paradise, the fall Fashion Show of Los Angeles was opened today.

Thousands of shoppers and spectators swarmed through the streets and into the stores, many of them being downtown before the merchants threw open their doors.

These were brought down by the fact that all display windows were unveiled at dawn, leaving a few hours of "window shopping" before the stores could be stormed.

With the first view of the windows it was evident that Dame Fashion has swept the styles into entirely new fields and that she has returned from a rather garish mood of two seasons past, to one of beauty and dignity.

The capricious lady has cast aside bizarre colors and designs.
She has frowned on the grotesque in lines and tones.

She has become artistic to a high degree and with a touch of regality.
And she has become more feminine, too.

NO RIOT OF COLORS
In a display far more brilliant than most fashion shows, and with a more pronounced sumptuousness, the designers have achieved a triumph over the recent riot of colors that fascinated milady.

Subtly has superseded frankness in styles; charm has triumphed over the imaginative regime of sport clothes.

Many of the most stunning models in all lines of feminine finery were in bead black. Street garments have been made rich with fur, house frocks charming with it or glittering with sequins.

The most severe tailored suits were shown to be relieved by some touch of unexpected softness, a collar frill of tulle here, a bit of folded white chiffon tucked in there.

STYLES WIN ALL
And the enthusiasm of the vast crowd of spectators proved that it was love at first sight between mi-lady and the new fashions. There will be no protests against the gowns, the colors, the styles which Los Angeles merchants have so successfully gathered together for this season.
They will all be enthusiastically accepted.

The blouses alone were sufficiently delectable to make the fashion show worth while to any woman. They are illogical little affairs, being sheerer and daintier even than the waists designed for the past summer.
Flesh tones in georgette crepes and chiffons have rather been superseded by black and greys, but this makes the blouses none the less transparent and chic.

WINTER COATS
And Milady doesn't need a heavy waist to keep warm in, for the new winter coats, big and warm and almost the most beautiful feature of the fall styles will ward off the cold.
Heavy storm collars and muff cuffs of fur, with much fur round the bottom of these coats provide for warmth in extreme cold, and for a stunning costume in all weather.

Coat suits and street costumes will be furnished by high button shoes, prevailing colors being in tans, browns and greys. When evening comes these are discarded in favor of the dearest slippers—intriguing French models in satins and velvets, beaded, buckled, and some of them even dare perky up-standing white plumes nearly three inches high instead of buckles.

To skip from shoes to hats one finds the same variety from street to dress wear. Extremely small hats are in vogue for the street, and milliners have produced unusually tempting models this year. However, Mi-lady will not be deprived of her picture hat and so she can have a distinct change with only a few hats in her wardrobe.

EVENING GOWNS
As usual in a fashion show, evening gowns were given the preeminent place in the window displays today.
Long court trains, over skirts nine inches from the grounds; tulle draped into sleeves or falling back as though to form an alluring setting for soft flame.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other furs in capes and big collars, and hats which rival all the beauties of the season.

An evening gown shows the colors flame, from blazing satin under slip to soft draperies of dull gold lace on either side. Ornaments of dull crimson stones suggest the blazing heart of the flame, and the train and low cut bodice are heavily jeweled and trimmed.

As usual in a fashion show, evening gowns were given the preeminent
place in the window displays today.
Long court trains, over skirts nine
inches from the grounds; tulle draped
into sleeves or falling back as though
to form an alluring setting for soft
flame.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other
furs in capes and big collars, and
hats which rival all the beauties of
the season.

An evening gown shows the colors
flame, from blazing satin under slip
to soft draperies of dull gold lace on
either side. Ornaments of dull crim-
son stones suggest the blazing heart
of the flame, and the train and low
cut bodice are heavily jeweled and
trimmed.

As usual in a fashion show, evening gowns were given the preeminent
place in the window displays today.
Long court trains, over skirts nine
inches from the grounds; tulle draped
into sleeves or falling back as though
to form an alluring setting for soft
flame.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other
furs in capes and big collars, and
hats which rival all the beauties of
the season.

An evening gown shows the colors
flame, from blazing satin under slip
to soft draperies of dull gold lace on
either side. Ornaments of dull crim-
son stones suggest the blazing heart
of the flame, and the train and low
cut bodice are heavily jeweled and
trimmed.

"MOTHERS"
By BILLY SUNDAY
Copyright 1917 by W. A. Sunday

This is the sermon delivered at the evangelistic tabernacle by Revivalist Sunday this afternoon.

In the book of Exodus, the second chapter and the ninth verse, "Take this child away and nurse it for me and I will pay thee thy wages."

I think the story of Moses is one of the most attractive and fascinating ever written, and it takes hold upon us, and it never loses its interest. It is so graphically told that once it is learned, it is never forgotten.

I have tried to imagine the anxiety with which that child was born into this world, for it came with the sentence of death hovering over it; for the sword of Pharaoh had declared that every male child born of the Hebrews should be slain, and the sword of Pharaoh and that "might" started right at the cradle.

HAD GOD WITH HER
The mother of Moses was a slave, and she was compelled like the other Jews to work in the brick yards, but God was on her side and she won, as the mother always does when God is on her side.

Before going to work she had to secure a hiding place for this child, and put his little sister Miriam on guard, lest her presence be seen by the soldiers of Pharaoh and they would hunt and slay this child.

For three months he had to be hid and each day a new hiding place had to be secured. Now that he has grown larger and more full of life, a more secure hiding place had to be found.

HIS DESTINY
I believe the plans for that ark originated in heaven, for God was as much interested in the salvation of that child as the mother could have possibly been, for God knew what he wanted him to do when he became a man.

And how carefully the material out of which that ark was built had been selected.

PRAYS ALL NIGHT
I think if parents today were as careful of the company their children keep, the books they read, the pictures they see and the places to which they go, there would not be so many drunken sots, vomiting on their way to hell, and haunts of sin and vice would not be fed with girls that have not sprouted long skirts yet.

If you were only more careful of the company they keep and the things they see and the places they go!

Imagine the last night that baby spent in that home. All the dark hours he kept: "Just keep it under cover, We'll keep it as quiet as we can."

1 DEAD, 1 DYING
AS STREET CAR
HITS AUTO

Struck by a La Habra car of the Pacific Electric at Lambert crossing on the Whittier line, William F.
Young, aged 60, of Whittier, was instantly killed and Charles Hunsaker, aged 45, so badly injured that he may die.

The men were riding in an automobile driven by Young when struck by the car.

The machine was said to have stalled on the crossing directly in front of the approaching car. Young was hurled from the wreckage and was dead when passengers from the car reached him.

Auto Parking in B'w'y Is Permitted for Fashion Show

Sergeant Grogan of the traffic squad today announced that motor vehicles will be permitted to park along Broadway during the fashion show tonight and tomorrow night if they keep in one line.
The moving vehicles will have to move in one direction.
There will be no doubling up either of the parked cars or of the moving vehicles.

For the first time in the history of the fashion shows the traffic squad will cover Seventh street during the evening and mounted men will be placed between streets.
Broadway will be policed from Fourth street to Ninth and Seventh street will be covered from Broadway to Grand.

GERMAN IS NOW UNPOPULAR IN
L. A. SCHOOLS

Los Angeles high school boys and girls aren't going to talk the enemy's language.

This was made apparent today when it was discovered that in a school of more than 2000 students only nine have enrolled with the beginner's German language class.

According to Miss Rodenburg, teacher of German, this is a decrease of more than 100 per cent in the popularity of the German language. Last year there was an extremely large class, but only nine will attend this year.

In the same proportion, the popularity of the French language has increased. All French classes are overcrowded and there is a general enthusiasm over studying the language of the allied nation.

The complete enrollment of the new high school today showed 2003 pupils, although the school department had expected not more than 1400 because of the distance of the new institution from many residence districts.

5-Cent Per Hour Wage Increase Is Given Beet Workers

Notices that a 5 cent an hour increase in wages to all employes of the American Beet Sugar company would go into effect today, were posted at the company's plant at Chino today.

As many of the field laborers employed by the company work on a 12-hour-a-day schedule during the harvest season, the increase will mean $4.20 a week to the men. It was stated that similar increases are to be allowed at all of the Southern California plants of the company, including the big Oxnard plant.

2 Germans Held for Illegal U. S. Entry

Charged with entering the country without a permit, two Germans, Max Jundt and Felix Manss, are today confined in the Los Angeles city jail. They were taken into custody yesterday by United States Immigration Officers Munster and Gatley while attempting to enter this country at the harbor via steamers from foreign ports.

Jundt, a messman on the steamer Admiral Goodrich, claimed to be a Canadian. He will be sent to Tacoma.

Manss, a seaman on the steamer Centralia, represented himself to be an American citizen.

Jitney Bus Driver Hurt in Collision

Arthur Chisholm, Pomona jitney bus driver, narrowly escaped death today when his automobile was struck by a street car as he was backing the machine out of a Pomona garage.
Chisholm was thrown from the seat and sustained severe injuries. The force of his fall to the pavement broke open an old wound caused by an operation for appendicitis. He was taken to the Pomona Valley hospital.

Fight Is Begun on Citrus Scale

A big fight against citrus scale in the Pomona district was started today when twelve crews were sent out with gas bags to fumigate the trees.
It was stated that weather conditions were particularly favorable for killing the scale.

2 Killed, 5 Hurt; Car Runs Off Grade

Plunging off a grade road into a canyon, eighty feet below, two men were killed, five seriously injured and their automobile entirely wrecked near Ventura during a dense fog. A 9-year-old boy alone escaped uninjured.

The dead: William Vantuez and Antonio Carlon.

The injured: Enrico Juarez, Philip Rodriguez, Raymond Duarte, Bernardo and Francisco Uribes. The injured were rushed to St. John's hospital, Ventura.

Infantile Paralysis Epidemic Spreads

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Nine new cases of infantile paralysis have been reported in the last 24 hours, bringing the total number now in this city to 118. According to statements by board of health officials, the death rate is rising, 50 per cent of the afflicted dying of the disease.

STUNNING STYLE DISPLAYS DRAW
BIG THROGS

Los Angeles merchants today won new laurels in the window displays made along the fashion rialto.

Always of as great interest to the public as the wares inside the great stores, these windows were an attractive index to the fall styles and to all of the decrees and fancies of Dame Fashion this season.

Thousands of people gathered before the windows, inspecting them eagerly during a slow promenade down the length of Broadway and along the new shopping district of Seventh street.

The windows were dressed with the most elaborate decorations, and contained the most choice models in the city.

LIGHTS TONIGHT
Tonight they will be brightly illuminated and their beauty shown under the brilliance of electric lights.
This will give an especial magnificence to the evening gowns which this year are so gorgeous in sequins, bugle beads and other glittering embellishments.

Here are a few of the features of the fashion show seen in the great display windows today:

HAMBURGER'S
The lure of the spider in his glittering web will form one of the specially attractive features of Hamburger's windows, whose extensive surfaces on almost three blocks will attract many admirers.

As is customary with this store the ground floor will be open for public use each evening of the Fashion show with a brilliant musical program and no goods sold.

Living models will parade three times daily for the better display of the smart gowns suits and frocks offered for the approval of patrons, and an air of festivity will prevail.

Naturtiums in the orange, yellow and red of California's own colors will be used throughout the interior of the store, and cut flowers and plants appear in the windows. Many devices of unusual interest have been used here, with a lily pond in one window, a scene from Monte Carlo in another, and the spider web weaving their subtle lure everywhere.

Among the specially noticeable costumes provided for the amusement and admiration of the shoppers is a Nutria fur coat, in belt and blouse effect and handsome trimmings of Kolinsky. The interest in Russian modes is exemplified in a frock of white broadcloth cut after the Russian peasant blouse. This is also trimmed with Nutria which is to be one of the most popular furs of the season.

An evening gown shows the colors
flame, from blazing satin under slip
to soft draperies of dull gold lace on
either side. Ornaments of dull crim-
son stones suggest the blazing heart
of the flame, and the train and low
cut bodice are heavily jeweled and
trimmed.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other
furs in capes and big collars, and
hats which rival all the beauties of
the season.

An evening gown shows the colors
flame, from blazing satin under slip
to soft draperies of dull gold lace on
either side. Ornaments of dull crim-
son stones suggest the blazing heart
of the flame, and the train and low
cut bodice are heavily jeweled and
trimmed.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other
furs in capes and big collars, and
hats which rival all the beauties of
the season.

An evening gown shows the colors
flame, from blazing satin under slip
to soft draperies of dull gold lace on
either side. Ornaments of dull crim-
son stones suggest the blazing heart
of the flame, and the train and low
cut bodice are heavily jeweled and
trimmed.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other
furs in capes and big collars, and
hats which rival all the beauties of
the season.

An evening gown shows the colors
flame, from blazing satin under slip
to soft draperies of dull gold lace on
either side. Ornaments of dull crim-
son stones suggest the blazing heart
of the flame, and the train and low
cut bodice are heavily jeweled and
trimmed.

Boaded bags, Kolinsky and other
furs in capes and big collars, and
hats which rival all the beauties of the season.