

Deadlock Grips General Motors Strike; Appeals Made to F. R.

Pontiac Ready To Close Doors

DETROIT, Jan. 11.—(AP)—General Motors, automobile giant, today said it would close its doors for good if the strike continues beyond the end of the month.

Mother and Son Slain by Kidnap

Mrs. William H. Malton and, at right, 16-year-old Charles, kidnaped December 27, whose wife and infant body was found today in a shallow grave near Everett, Wash.

France Sends Curt Warning Over Morocco

GENEVA, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Reports reached diplomatic circles here today that 2000 Spanish soldiers are in Morocco and are expected to be sent to the Spanish Sahara.

Fellow Needs a Friend

Juan Gonzalez and Frank Williams as they appear in 'Three Men on a Horse' at the Peninsula theatre tonight and tomorrow for three days. On the scene left will be Charlie Chase at the Opera, featuring Warner Oland.

State Offers Road Parley

Three Nevada City Councils today made overtures to San Joaquin county to make up for the highway construction funds for road work in 1937.

JAIL STORY ON RADIO Yarn by Former Nona Beard on 'Tales of California'

A half-hour program dramatizing the jail story was featured on the program of the Pacific Coast Radio Yarn by former Nona Beard on 'Tales of California'.

Firefighters Win Praise

The Chief Hugh J. Moran made the definite statement today that the firefighters of the city have done a splendid job.

POPE RELATIVELY BETTER Vatican Denies Statements That Condition Is Worse

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The pope's condition is relatively good, the Vatican will declare in an official statement to be published tonight in Quaresima.

Certh-Knollin Agency Expands

The Certh-Knollin Advertising Agency, operated by the Certh-Knollin Advertising Agency, has expanded its services to include radio advertising.

School Row

Established in 1924, the school board today announced its decision on the matter of the school building.

Frank Madonna, 92, Of Coast Passes

FRANK MADONNA, 92, of 230 Pacific avenue, San Francisco, was killed in a car accident today.

Elvli Furnishings Auctioned Today

Piled furnishings and other valuable possessions of the late William H. Elvli will be auctioned today.

Former Daily City Resident Passes

DAILY CITY, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Mary Elizabeth Mann, 88, former resident of Daily City, died today.

Mrs. McNunes Case Over To January 19

Arrangements of Mrs. Maxwell McNunes, San Francisco, on the charge of conspiracy and sedition were postponed today.

Physician Leaves Estate of $87,000

Three San Francisco city residents today received shares of an $87,000 estate left by a physician.

RED TOP CABS PHONE 206

General Hauling Complete Moving Service 240 Main Street TELEPHONE 90

EYES... NOW PLAYING

The only eye specialist in the city... Ronald Dixon, Opt. D. 228 Third Avenue Telephone 845

S. P. Will Not Electrify Lines

President A. D. McDonald of the Southern Pacific company has given his opinion on the proposed electrification of the San Francisco lines.

De Matteis Heads Italian Group

Deputy Italian Attorney Louis De Matteis today headed a group of Italian citizens in San Francisco.

Mother of Mrs. Cutler Pleads In Fresno

Mrs. W. W. Cutler, mother of Mrs. Cutler, today pleaded in Fresno for the return of her son.

Peninsula

Peninsula Theatre tonight and Tuesday featuring Stanivych and Moelmsker.

Baywood

Baywood Theatre tonight and Tuesday featuring Stanivych and Moelmsker.

Peninsula

Peninsula Theatre tonight and Tuesday featuring Stanivych and Moelmsker.

Banjo on My Knee

Banjo on My Knee featuring Stanivych and Moelmsker.

Advertisement for 'REVIVAL SHOW' featuring 'Broadway Melody of 1936' and 'Ah Wilderness' at the Peninsula Theatre.