OAKLAND, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 13, 1902

NO. 62

CITY EXPERT ROSS BROMLEY FINDS FAULT WITH CITY'S CITY ATTORNEY JOHNSON SUSTAINS BREED'S ACTION FULLY—REPORT ON ALL THE CITY OFFICES.

Ross Bromley, the City Expert, has concluded his examination of the books of the several municipal departments and has handed in his report to Mayor Hancock. The report contains a list of errors and omissions in the reports of the City Attorney Johnson for the year 1901, and also a list of errors and omissions in the reports of the various departments and offices of the city for the year 1901.

The expert's report, "Honorable Mr. Mayor," says that the City of Oakland has a population of 25,000, and that the City Charter, the City Ordinance, the City Ordinance, and the City Ordinance, are all in violation of the State Constitution. The expert also finds fault with the City Attorney Johnson's report for the year 1901, and with the reports of the various departments and offices of the city for the year 1901.
