

SAN FRANCISCO, MAY 13, 1903.

WEDNESDAY

7

OF THE NATION'S EXECUTIVE

5,000 MEN IN LINE

THOUSANDS of men and boys marched in the presidential parade, which moved with military precision through the city streets. The cavalry regiments of the guard of honor and there was not a single hitch in the march. Mr. Roosevelt brought his personal congratulations to the left and to the right. He was pleased when the Commander-in-Chief passed before him in review. His official appreciation of the soldiers' performance. Another incident of the day occurred when the President was being driven along the streets. An enthusiastic woman viewer in a window herded a horde of children and it fell near the President's feet.

Roosevelt Welcomed By Newspapers of San Francisco

At the receipt of the Press Club, an official dinner was given to the President. The club members, including the Mayor, were present. The President was warmly welcomed by the club members. The dinner was a success. The President was in good spirits. The club members were glad to see him. The dinner was a success. The President was warmly welcomed by the club members.

PROGRAMME TO-DAY.

The programme for today includes a visit to the Golden Gate and a luncheon at the Hotel. The President will leave for the Golden Gate at 10 o'clock. He will return at 12 o'clock. A luncheon will be given at the Hotel at 1 o'clock. The President will then visit the Golden Gate. He will return at 4 o'clock. A luncheon will be given at the Hotel at 5 o'clock. The President will then visit the Golden Gate. He will return at 8 o'clock. A luncheon will be given at the Hotel at 9 o'clock. The President will then visit the Golden Gate. He will return at 11 o'clock. A luncheon will be given at the Hotel at 12 o'clock.

NAVY SECRETARY AND THE PRESIDENT IN THE CARRIAGE DURING THE PARADE.

The President was warmly welcomed by the club members. The dinner was a success. The President was in good spirits. The club members were glad to see him. The dinner was a success. The President was warmly welcomed by the club members.

Roosevelt's Reply

The President's reply was characterized by the simplicity and directness of his words. He expressed his appreciation for the warm reception and the loyalty of the people. He said that he was proud to be the President of the United States and that he would do his best to serve the people.

Cowboy Yell Wins Recognition for Four Former 'Rough Riders'

The cowboy yell, a tradition of the Rough Riders, was recognized by the President. Four former members of the Rough Riders were present at the ceremony. They were given a special honor. The President was pleased to see them. The cowboy yell was a success. The former Rough Riders were glad to see the President.

King to the President

The King of the United Kingdom has sent a message of congratulations to the President. The message was received by the President. The President was pleased to receive the message. The King's message was a success. The President was glad to see the King's message.

MR. DE WITTE, CHIEF OF POLICE, AND GOVERNOR FURNACE AT THE DINNER.

REMEMBERS MEN OF FIRING LINE

The President remembered the men of the firing line. He said that they were the heroes of the war. He said that they were the men who saved the country. He said that they were the men who were brave and loyal. He said that they were the men who were the backbone of the nation. He said that they were the men who were the pride of the country.