RIOT ON THE FLOOR OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS

Application of the Cloture by Balfour Causes the Most Sensational Scene Ever Witnessed in Parliament.

Irish Members Refuse to Obey the Ruling of the Speaker and Are Forcibly Removed by the Police.

Each One Resisted Violently and in the Free Fights That Followed Many Were Roughly Handled.

LONDON, March 5.—A riot occurred in the House of Commons to-night, in which many of the Irish members and several policemen were roughly handled. It was precipitated by the Speaker when he applied the clause on the obnoxious resolution. The "Nationalist" member "O'Connell" refused to leave the House when the division was taken. The Speaker's attempt to remove him was resisted by the Irish members who would not obey the order and Mr. Speaker moved that the House be adjourned.

The Speaker ordered them to withdraw, but they refused, and great confusion ensued. The Speaker then ordered the police to remove the Irish members. The police were resisted by the Irish members who fought with them. Many were roughly handled and several were injured.
