

Remember the Home Folks with a truly Californian gift

To share the pleasure of your trip with the family and friends at home you will wish to send or take back something expressive of California. What could better carry the spell of California sunshine than a box of fruits grown in the golden state?

A Redwood Treasure Chest, or Oriental basket filled with California's choicest fruits—cluster raisins, shelled walnuts and almonds, figs, dates and glace fruits—makes a delightful gift. The decorated redwood box, made from California giant redwoods thousands of years old, will be kept as a permanent souvenir. You are invited to call at McLean's and see the selection. These boxes, specially packed, priced
