

A Live Woman Sent Through the Mails.
First case on record. "Kid" in "Hill" in "Feet in the Mail" "Dialler" by "Darius" Bailey, in the next SUNDAY EXAMINER.

The Examiner.

VOL. XLVI. SAN FRANCISCO, MONDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 7, 1898. NO. 38.

"Klondike Gold," A Great Ballad.
By Roger S. Phelps and Leo Bruch. One of the most original songs ever written.
SUNDAY EXAMINER.

POISONER WOULD SAVE HIS LIFE

FRANK BELEW A SUPPLIANT FOR MERCY

The Solano Authorities Hold Out No Hope.

Their Prisoner Formally Signs His Confession of Guilt.

Brother Arthur Visits Him in His Cell in Fairfield Court-house.

WILL NOT BE DESEITED. His Kin Will See That the Murderer Has Counsel and a Fair Trial.

Special Dispatch to "The Examiner." FAIRFIELD, February 6.—Frank Belew, the confessed poisoner of his brother and sister, in contemplating the possibility of escape, is endeavoring to make his way to the coast, it is believed, to get to the States. The district attorney says his hope is that he will be able to get to the States. A special study is being made of the case. A special study is being made of the case. A special study is being made of the case.

INVESTIGATORS PRESS HARD ON HANNA'S MEN.

The Ohio Senate Committee Ready With a Report.

Boycott and Others Will Probably Be Declared Guilty.

Punishment in Store for Witnesses Who Refused to Give Testimony.

MANY INDICTMENTS EXPECTED. Preparations for Immediate Investigation of the Attempt Made to Sift Like Jones.

Special Dispatch to "The Examiner." COLUMBUS, Ohio, February 6.—Although every effort has been put forth to keep the matter quiet, it has been generally stated that the Senate Judiciary Investigation Committee will offer a report this week, and bring the Hanna-Ohio bribery matter to an end.

The report of the committee will include a careful summary and analysis of the Hanna case before the committee, and which no limitation has been placed on this report, in case the committee should be of the opinion that the Hanna-Ohio bribery matter is a case of bribery. The committee will also be reported to the Senate for publication for comment.

ADOLPH SUTRO DECLARED MENTALLY INCOMPETENT.

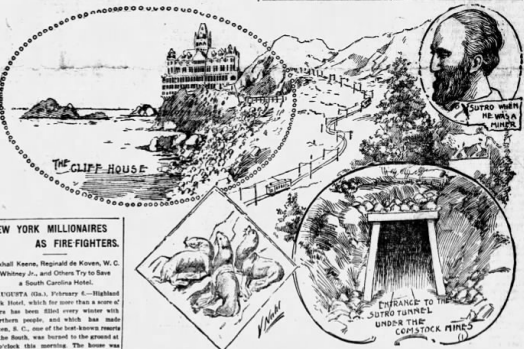

Dr. Emma Sutro-Merritt Appointed Guardian.

The Order Made Saturday Morning by Superior Judge Belcher.

AT REQUEST OF HIS CHILDREN.

The Former Mayor Will Be Cared for by His Daughter at His Well-Known Home on the Heights Over-looking the Ocean.

Adolph Sutro, ex-Mayor of San Francisco and builder of the famous Sausalito Tunnel, was adjudged mentally incompetent by Superior Judge Belcher last Saturday morning. His daughter, Dr. Emma Sutro-Merritt, who has been in constant professional attendance on her father for many months past, was appointed guardian of his person and estate, her bonds being fixed at $200,000. Her two brothers and her sister, who reside in this city, become wards on the bond. Mr. Sutro is over eighty years old, and the loss of his mental faculties is attributed to the effects of years, combined with the effects of two strokes of apoplexy which he has suffered within the past few months. The petition to have his daughter appointed his guardian was made by Colonel Little, manager of the Sutro properties, after the members of the family and other attorneys had decided that such a step was necessary.

NEW YORK MILLIONAIRES AS FIRE FIGHTERS.

Foshell, Keene, Reynolds de Koven, W. C. Whitney Jr., and Others Try to Save a Santa Carolina Hotel.

ATQUETA, Ill., February 6.—Holland Park hotel, which for more than a score of years has been filled every winter with Northern people, and which has made Atqueta, Ill., one of the best known resorts in the South, was burned to the ground at 2 o'clock this morning. The hotel was full of guests, it being the very coldest of the winter.

There were many millionaires among the hotel guests. A hotel fire was not, indeed, with Foshell, Keene, Reynolds de Koven, W. C. Whitney Jr., Foshell Keene and other wealthy New Yorkers in line, and they worked hard to save an estimate to check the progress of the flames. The guests saved all their baggage. The hotel had been entirely destroyed by the fire, and the loss was estimated at $1,000,000. The owners are Connecticut people and the company was incorporated in 1890. The building was insured for $750,000.

TRIES TO KIDNAP TWO SMALL CHILDREN.

A Stranger Runs Away With a Boy and Girl, but They Succeeded in Escaping.

PORTLAND, Ore., February 6.—An odd case in which a woman was named as having tried to kidnap two children, a boy and a girl, was reported here today. The woman, who was named as having tried to kidnap the children, was named as having tried to kidnap the children. The woman, who was named as having tried to kidnap the children, was named as having tried to kidnap the children.

HAWAIIAN STAR CATHOLIC BURNED.

KAUNAOA, Hawaii, February 6.—The Hawaiian Star, published at Kaunaoa, Hawaii, was burned to the ground by fire today. The building was insured for $100,000 and the loss was estimated at $100,000.

ADOLPH SUTRO AND SOME OF HIS GREAT WORKS.

That Mr. Sutro was a man of extraordinary energy and capacity is shown by the record of his life. He built the San Francisco Bay Bridge, the Sausalito Tunnel, the Cliff House and the Sutro Tunnel. He was a man of great energy and capacity.

EVENTS OF ONE DAY IN A POISONER'S LIFE.

Frank Belew, the murderer of his brother and sister, yesterday expressed a desire to put in legal form the confession he made in "The Examiner" Saturday night. District Attorney Devlin accommodated him. The prisoner is shown in the sketch in the act of signing the document. The artist has also caught glimpses of him in his cell as a prisoner met and shook hands with his brother Arthur.